Technology and Culture Allen W. Batteau, 2009-06-09 Technology and Culture provides a comprehensive overview of anthropological and other theories examining the place of technology in culture and the consequences of technology for cultural evolution The book develops and contrasts anthropological discourse of technology and culture with humanistic and managerial views It uses core anthropological concepts including adaptation evolution totemic identity and collective representations to locate a broad variety of technologies ancient and modern in a context of shared understandings and misunderstandings The author draws on his own experience as an auto mechanic computer programmer ethnographer and aircraft pilot to demonstrate that technologies are cultural creations encoding and accelerating the dreams and delusions of the societies that produce them

Complexity, Cognition and the City Juval Portugali, 2011-07-06 Complexity Cognition and the City aims at a deeper understanding of urbanism while invoking on an equal footing the contributions both the hard and soft sciences have made and are still making when grappling with the many issues and facets of regional planning and dynamics In this work the author goes beyond merely seeing the city as a self organized emerging pattern of some collective interaction between many stylized urban agents he makes the crucial step of attributing cognition to his agents and thus raises for the first time the question on how to deal with a complex system composed of many interacting complex agents in clearly defined settings Accordingly the author eventually addresses issues of practical relevance for urban planners and decision makers The book unfolds its message in a largely nontechnical manner so as to provide a broad interdisciplinary readership with insights ideas and other stimuli to encourage further research with the twofold aim of further pushing back the boundaries of complexity science and emphasizing the all important interrelation of hard and soft sciences in recognizing the cognitive sciences as another necessary ingredient for meaningful urban studies

Godfat's Door Christopher Grosso, 2018-04-22 Humankind is faced with a sudden new problem When people fall asleep they die If you want to live you need to stay awake With sleep bringing death the world descends into chaos outside of Godfat's apartment door His two neighbors convince Godfat that they should gather together in his apartment and keep one another awake While humanity takes a collective dirt nap strange happenings occur inside and outside Godfat's door that cannot be explained The longer the three neighbors stay conscious the more they come to realize that they might be the only people in the world left awake

Ignorance
Explosion J. Lukasiewicz, 1994 Marshall McLuhan once noted that We do not know who discovered water but it was almost certainly not a fish Anybody's total surround or environment creates a condition of non perception This statement has become a metaphor for what has happened in Western societies caught as they are between states of civilization created by the industrial revolution and emerging post industrial technology This unveiling of our cultural condition and the seeming inability of our social sciences to recognize or influence current or future trends presents forceful challenges to those who believe they are planning for the future of humanity Lukasiewicz proposes that there are limits beyond which the human mind cannot comprehend its increasingly artificial unnatural and in the end dehumanized environment Despite the grim probabilities he sees in the future Lukasiewicz s work is nonetheless undergirded by a sense of optimism and good humor informs this evocative analysis of our time A readable comprehensive and stimulating examination of the changing dilemmas of the human condition Zbigniew Brzezinski Assistant to the President of the United States for National Security Affairs 1977 1981 Sea Ice in the Arctic Ola M. Johannessen, Leonid P. Bobylev, Elena V. Shalina, Stein Sandven, 2019-11-12 This book provides in depth information about the sea ice in the Arctic at scales from paleoenvironmental variability to more contemporary changes during the past and present centuries The book is based on several decades of research related to sea ice in the Arctic and its variability sea ice process studies as well as implications of the sea ice variability on human activities The chapters provide an extensive overview of the research results related to sea ice in the Arctic at paleo scales to more recent scales of variations as well as projections for changes during the 21st century The authors have pioneered the satellite remote sensing monitoring of sea ice and used other monitoring data in order to study monitor and model sea ice and its processes The Practical Teacher ,1885 Publications of ... Colorado Agricultural Experiment Station,1900
