Ruskin Bond A Study of Human Emotions Dr. Sangeeta Paul Budhiraja, Literature challenges one not only to think about ethical conundrums but also makes one sensitive and compassionate When it blends with euphoria and nostalgia the integral parts of human mind it toughens and becomes sturdy Man loves to live in his past memories to be happy The experiences form a part of human personality and shape their behaviour pattern Nostalgia stores for us our memories which we relish lifelong Even the lamentable days of past become pleasant Though we might have ignored some not too pleasant incidents in our bygone days yet somewhat bitter experiences appear to be impressive and attractive It is aptly said that the panorama of mountains appear beautiful and splendid from a distance The bitterness of nearness is intolerable The more we grow in years the more our past recedes Distance from the life lived long ago makes it sweet and desirable Strain and stress of the present becomes frivolous when we slipand relapse into euphoric nostalgia The instincts of euphoria and nostalgia have been vividly handled by the legendry writers of all times They have given various dimensions and definitions to the readers to redeem these human aspects yet many more stones are still unturned These two instincts in the oeuvre of the legendry writer Ruskin Bond are the anchor points that suggest the scope of study I have chosen to put forward the very idea about how a man s body mind and soul blend with traces of his past memories and support the holistic growth

Sex and Power Rita Banerji, 2008-11-14 Sex underlies human existence and if human life is sacred how can sex not be As squeamish as India is today about sex this is also the land where queens once copulated with head horses at religious ceremonies where the art of love making was declared the revelation of the gods and recorded in elaborate detail in the kama sutras and prostitution was a form of sacred offering at temples adorned with erotic sculptures Using India as a paradigm Rita Banerji illustrates that sexual morality is not an absolute but a facet of living that undergoes periodic upheavals She delineates four major periods in Indian history when there were significant shifts in the collective social perception of sex and sexuality and the associated customs and beliefs What causes this revision in sexual ethos To explain this Sex and Power proposes a modified version of Nietzsche's slave versus master morality theory The theory which is tested against the dynamics of each of the four defined periods establishes that the moral overview of any given period is determined not by a set of pre-existing ethics but by the existent power structure of the period in question The accepted moral code actually serves the party in power How would this theory play out in the context of India today Banerji examines this question at length as one of extreme urgency and concludes that the three most burning issues facing the country today population explosion AIDS and female genocide are the manifestations of a collective sexual malfunctioning of society and need to be redressed in the context of an existent social and economic power hierarchy

How Literary Worlds Are Shaped Bo Pettersson, 2016-09-12 Literary studies still lack an extensive comparative analysis of different kinds of literature including ancient and non Western How Literary Worlds Are Shaped A Comparative Poetics of Literary Imagination aims to provide such a study Literature it claims is based on individual and shared human imagination which creates literary worlds that blend the real and the fantastic mimesis and genre often modulated by different kinds of unreliability The main building blocks of literary worlds are their oral visual and written modes and three themes challenge perception and relation They are blended and inflected in different ways by combinations of narratives and figures indirection thwarted aspirations meta usages hypothetical action as well as hierarchies and blends of genres and text types Moreover literary worlds are not only constructed by humans but also shape their lives and reinforce their sense of wonder Finally ten reasons are given in order to show how this comparative view can be of use in literary studies In sum How Literary Worlds Are Shaped is the first study to present a wide ranging and detailed comparative account of the makings of literary worlds A Communion of Subjects

Paul Waldau, Kimberley Patton, 2009-05-22 A Communion of Subjects is the first comparative and interdisciplinary study of the conceptualization of animals in world religions Scholars from a wide range of disciplines including Thomas Berry cultural history Wendy Doniger study of myth Elizabeth Lawrence veterinary medicine ritual studies Marc Bekoff cognitive ethology Marc Hauser behavioral science Steven Wise animals and law Peter Singer animals and ethics and Jane Goodall primatology consider how major religious traditions have incorporated animals into their belief systems myths rituals and art Their findings offer profound insights into the relationship between human beings and animals and a deeper understanding of the social and ecological web in which we all live Ritwik Ghatak and the Cinema of Praxis Diamond Oberoi

Vahali, 2020-04-24 In a significant departure from other works on Ritwik Ghatak this book establishes him as an auteur and a maestro on par with some of the great film directors like Sergei Eisenstein Satyajit Ray Ingmar Bergman Federico Fellini Kenji Mizoguchi and Luis Bunuel Based on in depth research that follows Ghatak's journey within the context of the Indian People's Theatre Association it fills an important gap in the scholarship around Ghatak by offering crucial insights into Ghatak's unique vision of cinema embedded as it is in the cultural psychic configurations of the people It analyses Ghatak's practice by minutely tracing formal similarities across the language of his cinematic oeuvre in the domain of cinematography lighting music and sound The book develops the way in which cinematic technique enters the domain of conceptual constructs and abstractions It moves on to chronicle Ghatak's political odyssey as reflected in his cinema Moreover it charts the manner in which Ghatak through his cinematic idiom offers a polemic of cinema that further adds to his notion of praxis a thoughtful Marxist paradigm organically associated with the culture and context of India By locating Ghatak within the discourse of nationalism the book brings to the surface Ghatak's critical insights related to the independence of the nation and the trauma of the partition of Bengal Ghatak's cinema served the crucial function of chronicling the mass tragedy of partition and its impact on the human psyche This book appeals to scholars of film studies and filmmaking as well as to researchers and general readers interested in debates pertaining to culture politics art psychoanalysis partition and refugee studies cinema theatre and ideology Kāma's Flowers Valerie Ritter, 2011-09-01 Kama's Flowers documents the transformation of Hindi poetry during the crucial period of 1885-1925 As Hindi was becoming a national language and Indian nationalism was emerging Hindi authors articulated a North Indian version of modernity by reenvisioning nature While their writing has previously been seen as an imitation of European Romanticism Valerie Ritter shows its unique and particular function in North India Description of the natural world recalled traditional poetics particularly erotic and devotional poetics but was now used to address sociopolitical concerns as authors created literature to advocate for a national character and to address a growing audience of female readers Examining Hindi classics translations from English poetry literary criticism and little known popular works Ritter combines translations with fresh literary analysis to show the pivotal role of nature in how modernity was understood Bringing a new body of literature to English language readers Kama s Flowers also reveals the origins of an influential visual culture that resonates today in Bollywood cinema
