B. Morris, 1969-09 This critical study of the group of remarkably talented poets who flourished in Spain between the First World War and the Spanish Civil War includes copious quotations accompanied by English prose translations Mr Morris treats his poets as a group showing how they shared certain themes and attitudes He begins with a general study of the generation as a whole and then examines the use of tradition the zest and levity of the Jazz Age the exaltation of life as a shared attitude then its converse the escape from life and finally the expression in complex imagery of personal tensions and disturbances These are often difficult poets but become less so when they are sympathetically examined in this way and in relation to earlier literary traditions Mr Morris enables the reader to take bearings and establish relationships which are enhanced by reproductions of photographs of the poets      Modern Drama in Theory and Practice: Volume 2, Symbolism, Surrealism and the Absurd J. L. Styan, John L. Styan, 1983-06-09 Jarry Garcia Lorca Satre Camus Beckett Ritual theatre and Jean Genet Fringe theatre in Britain__      Columbia Dictionary of Modern European Literature Jean Albert Bédé, William Benbow Edgerton, 1980 With more than 1800 critical entries on the writers and literatures of 33 languages this work presents the entire range of modern European writing from the symbolist and modernist works rooted in the last decades of the nineteenth century through the avant garde and existentialist movement to Barthes Blanchot Breton and continental thought pertinent today      Introduction to Spanish Poetry Eugenio Florit, 2012-09-19 From the 12th century Cantar de M o Cid to the 20th century poetry of Garcia Lorca Salinas and Alberti this book contains 37 poems by Spain s greatest poets Spanish texts with literal English translations biographical critical commentary      Spanish Poetry of the Twentieth Century Andrew Debicki, 2021-12-14 Twentieth century Spanish poetry has received comparatively little attention from critics writing in English Andrew Debicki now presents the first English language history published in the United States to examine the sweep of modern Spanish verse More important he is the first to situate Spanish poetry in the context of European modernity to trace its trajectory from the symbolists to the postmodernists Avoiding the rigid generational schemes and catalogs of names found in traditional Hispanic literary histories Debicki offers detailed discussions of salient books and texts to construct an original and compelling view of his subject He demonstrates that contemporary Spanish verse is rooted in the modern tradition and poetics that see the text as a unique embodiment of complex experiences He then traces the evolution of that tradition in the early decades of the century and its gradual disintegration from the 1950s to the present as Spanish poetry came to reflect features of the postmodern especially the poetics of text as process rather than as product By centering his study on major periods and examining within each the work of poets of different ages Debicki develops novel perspectives The late 1960s and early 1970s for example were not merely the setting for a new aestheticist generation but an era of exceptional creativity in which both established and new writers engendered a profound intertextual and often self referential lyricism This book will be essential reading for specialists in modern Spanish letters for advanced students and for readers interested in comparative literature      The Feeling of History Charles Hirschkind, 2020-12-25 In today s world the lines between Europe and the Middle East between Christian Europeans and Muslim immigrants in their midst seem to be hardening Alarmist editorials compare the arrival of Muslim refugees with the Muslim conquest of 711 warning that Europe will be called on to defend its borders Violence and paranoia are alive and well in Fortress Europe Against this xenophobic tendency The Feeling of History examines the idea of Andalucismo a modern tradition founded on the principle that contemporary Andalusia is connected in vitally important ways with medieval Islamic Iberia Charles Hirschkind explores the works and lives of writers thinkers poets artists and activists and he shows how taken together they constitute an Andalusian sensorium Hirschkind also carefully traces the various itineraries of Andalusismo from colonial and anticolonial efforts to contemporary movements supporting immigrant rights The Feeling of History offers a nuanced view into the way people experience their own past while also bearing witness to a philosophy of engaging the Middle East that experiments with alternative futures Spanish Poetry of the Grupo

Politics of Twentieth Century Spanish Theater argues that twentieth century artists used the Golden Age Eucharist plays called autos sacramentales to reassess the way politics and the arts interact in the Spanish nation's past and present and to posit new ideas for future relations between the state and the national culture industry The book traces the phenomenon of the twentieth century auto to show how theater practitioners revisited this national genre to manifest different oftentimes opposing ideological and aesthetic agendas It follows the auto from the avant garde stagings and rewritings of the form in the early twentieth century to the Francoist productions by the Teatro Nacional de la Falange to postmodern parodies of the form in the era following Franco's death to demonstrate how twentieth century Spanish dramatists use the auto in their reassessment of the nation's political and artistic past and as a way of envisioning its future

Voices from the Fuente Viva Amy Nauss Millay, 2005 Many twentieth century Spanish American writers sought to give voice to their countries native inhabitants Drawing upon anthropology and literary theory this book explores the representation of orality by major Spanish American anthropologist writers Lydia Cabrera Jose Maria Arguedas and Miguel Barnet These writers played a quintessential role of the Spanish American writer from colonial times to the present they inscribed the mythical world of a vanishing Other by creating a poetic effect of orality in their ethnographies and narratives This book argues that supposed differences between oral and written culture are rhetorical devices in the elaboration of literature specifically modern fiction in Spanish America Fictionalization of the oral requires adherence to the theory of a great divide between orality and literacy Because the texts considered here are predicated on the ideality of speech a contradiction underlies their shared desire to salvage oral tradition This book explores how anthropologist writers have addressed this compelling dilemma in their anthropological and narrative writings at Tufts University
