Louvre Dialogues:

Louvre Dialogues Pierre Schneider, 1971 Museum Skepticism David Carrier, 2006-05-31 DIV
Prominent art historian looks at the birth of the art museum and contemplates its future as a public institution div Dialogues with Degas Kathryn Brown, 2023-12-14
Dialogues with Degas demonstrates the ongoing relevance of Edgar Degas to 20th and 21st century ideas and art practices The first in depth examination of this major artist s impact on contemporary art this book explores how contemporary practitioners have used Degas s creativity as a springboard to engage imaginatively and critically with themes of colonialism gender race and class Individual chapters are devoted to dialogues between Degas s art and works produced by Frank Auerbach Cecily Brown Xinyi Cheng Ryan Gander Maggi Hambling Damien Hirst Howard Hodgkin Chantal Joffe Leon Kossoff R B Kitaj Juan Mu oz Paula Rego Jenny Saville Yinka Shonibare Cy Twombly and Rebecca Warren Through close analyses of selected paintings drawings prints and sculptures Kathryn Brown explores how Degas s technical and compositional experiments have been extended or challenged in innovative ways By experimenting with the materials and methods of existing works contemporary artists generate visual palimpsests that make new demands of the viewer and prompt a reconsideration of ideas that have informed histories of 19th century French art The book overturns familiar conceptions of influence by eschewing a genealogical approach and prioritizing instead the analysis of non linear encounters between artworks This encourages a new conception of the agency of visual artefacts and of the conversations they are capable of entertaining with each other While this study sheds new light on Degas s art and that of his interlocutors it also has methodological significance for the writing of art history Saul Steinberg's Literary Journeys Jessica R. Feldman, 2021-02-16
Saul Steinberg s inimitable drawings paintings and assemblages enriched the New Yorker gallery and museum shows and his own books for more than half a century Although the literary qualities of Steinberg s work have often been noted in passing critics and art historians have yet to fathom the specific ways in which Steinberg meant drawing not merely to resemble writing but to be itself a type of literary writing Jessica R Feldman s Saul Steinberg s Literary Journeys the first book length critical study of Steinberg s art and its relation to literature explores his complex literary roots particularly his affinities with modernist aesthetics and iconography The Steinberg who emerges is an artist of far greater depth than has been previously recognized Feldman begins her study with a consideration of Steinberg as a reader and writer including a survey of his personal library She explores the practice of modernist parody as the strongest affinity between Steinberg and the two authors he repeatedly claimed as his teachers Vladimir Nabokov and James Joyce Studying Steinberg s art in tandem with readings of selected works by Nabokov and Joyce Feldman explores fascinating bonds between Steinberg and these writers from their tastes for parody and popular culture to their status as mythmakers migr s and perpetual wanderers Further Feldman relates Steinberg s uniquely literary art to a host of other authors including Rimbaud Baudelaire Flaubert Gogol Tolstoy and Defoe Generously illustrated with the artist s work and drawing on

The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze John Dolis, 2014-07-14 An exploration of Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and unique vision of the world The Style of Hawthorne's Gaze is an unusual and insightful work that employs a combination of critical strategies drawn from art history philosophy psychoanalysis and contemporary aesthetic and literary theory to explore Nathaniel Hawthorne's narrative technique and his unique vision of the world Dolis studies Hawthorne's anti technological and essentially Romantic view of the external world and examines the recurring phenomena of lighting motion aspectivity fragmentation and imagination as they relate to his descriptive techniques Dolis sets the world of Hawthorne's work over and against the aesthetic and philosophical development of the world understood as a view from its inception in the camera obscura and perspective in general to its 19th century articulation in photography In light of this general technology of the image and drawing upon a wide range of contemporary critical theories Dolis begins his study of Hawthorne at the level of description where the world of the work first arises in the reader's consciousness Dolis shows how the work of Heidegger Merleau Ponty Freud Lacan and Derrida can provide fresh insights into the sophisticated style of Hawthorne's perception of and system for representing reality
