Love Commandment In Mark:

The Love Commandment in Mark George Keerankeri, 2003 This research work investigates the problem whether the texts of the love commandment of Mk 12 28 34 which are quotations of Deut 6 4 5 and Lev 19 18 have their original OT meaning in the gospel of Mark or whether they acquire besides this a specific Markan enrichment The study not only affirms such a specificity but also demonstrates its richness and depth It establishes that the distinctiveness of the Markan conception of the love commandment is closely linked to the person of Jesus and is expressed in a multiplicity of data both formal and thematic which can be discovered in an integral reading of the gospel The methodology employed is modern redaction criticism which differs from classical Redaction criticism in that it is synchronic and takes the text as it stands as a coherent and wholistic document to be understood in terms of itself and thus studies it in an integral reading The investigation has two parts involving four chapters and a general conclusion Part I comprising Ch I and Ch II dwells on the OT meaning and context of the texts of the love commandment and provides a lucid account of them which serves as the basis for its study in the gospel Part II researches the commandment in Mk in two chapters Of these Ch III represents the gospel's theoretical interpretation of the commandment and Ch IV Jesus' fulfillment of it in the Passion his instruction by example Together they complete Mark's total interpretation of the love commandment Following this the general conclusion sees the Markan specificities in a unifying theological vision defined by the gospel's Christology and closes by drawing its consequences George Keerankeri was born on 10 December 1944 at Kothanalloor in Kerala India He entered the Society of Jesus in 1962 and was ordained a priest in 1974 He holds an M A in Social Cultural Anthropology and completed his Licentiate in Sacred Scripture LSS at the Pontifical Biblical Institute Rome in 1979 Ever since he is a lecturer of the New Testament at Vidyajyoti College of Theology the Jesuit Faculty of Theology in Delhi India

Christological Rereading of the Shema (Deut 6.4) in Mark's Gospel John J. R. Lee, 2020-11-09 In Mark's Gospel the Shema language of Deut 6 4 is not merely reiterated in a traditional sense but reinterpreted in a striking way that links Jesus directly and inseparably with Israel's unique God Such an innovative rereading of the Shema must be understood in light of a various elements involved in and surrounding each of the three monotheistic references Mark 2 7 10 18 12 29 relating to their respective literary contexts and b Mark's nuanced complex and even paradoxical portrait of Jesus' relationship to God throughout his gospel John J R Lee shows that Mark's use of the one God language implies that his Jesus is not merely one who as a Shema observant Jew speaks on behalf of God but also one whose status and significance fundamentally correspond to those of Israel's unique deity

Via, 2005-10-18 In seeking to develop a hermeneutic for doing ethics on a narrative base Via here focuses on Mark's ethics and suggests ways in which they interrelate with other significant motifs in the Gospel eschatology revelation faith and the messianic secret Via maintains that the middle of Mark's plot presents the paradoxical position of the disciple who is placed in the overlapping of the kingdom of God and the age of hardness of heart Here is a bold attempt to integrate several agendas in interpretation literary criticism biblical studies constructive theological ethics so as to draw out the implications of Mark's narrative for faith and conduct in the real world

The Gospel of Mark John R. Donahue, Daniel J. Harrington, 2005 In The Gospel of Mark Fathers Donahue and Harrington use an approach that can be expressed by two terms currently used in literary criticism intratextuality and intertextuality This intratextual and intertextual reading of Mark's Gospel helps us to appreciate the literary character its setting in life and its distinctive approaches to the Old Testament Jesus and early Christian theology Intratextuality means we read Mark as Mark and by Mark Such a reading expresses interest in the final form of the Gospel not its source or literary history and in its words and images literary devices literary forms structures characterization and plot Reading Mark by Mark gives particular attention to the distinctive vocabulary and themes that run throughout the Gospel and serve to hold it together as a unified literary production Intertextuality comprises the relation between texts and a textual tradition and also referring to contextual materials not usually classified as texts e.g. archaeological data Intertextuality is used to note the links of the text of Mark's Gospel to other texts especially the Old Testament and to the life of the Markan community and of the Christian community today

volume offers exceptional commentary on Mark that clearly shows the second Gospel though it was a product of the earliest Christian community to be both relevant and sorely needed in today's church. Written by a biblical scholar who has devoted thirty years to the study of the second Gospel, this commentary aims primarily to interpret the Gospel of Mark according to its theological intentions and purposes especially as they relate to the life and ministry of Jesus and the call to faith and discipleship. Unique features of James Edwards's approach include clear descriptions of key terms used by Mark and revealing discussion of the Gospel's literary features including Mark's use of the sandwich technique and of imagistic motifs and irony. Edwards also proposes a new paradigm for interpreting the difficult Little Apocalypse of chapter 13 and he argues for a new understanding of Mark's controversial ending. St Mark's Gospel and the Christian Faith Bob Bowie, 2003

The existence of the historical Jesus cannot be doubted. But who was Jesus of Nazareth? And who is he for us today? In this controversial work, Schillebeeckx offers his experiment: an informative and sustained hermeneutical reflection on the story of Jesus. It became a bestseller and would become the first volume of Schillebeeckx's trilogy on Jesus Christ. He presents a Christology from below, rooted in the synoptic gospels but especially in Mark and in the Q tradition. At the same time, he is clearly interested in portraying the historical Jesus as both Proclaimer and Proclaimed. In this major work, Schillebeeckx tries to answer questions such as: Is the promise of salvation only to be found in Jesus Christ because he was a gift from God as the Gospels tell us? What can we say about the inspiration of so many who do not attend church or adhere to any belief they find in Jesus Christ? Schillebeeckx takes us into his promising quest that leads to the ultimate question of what religious truth actually is. Eyes on Jesus: Through Mark's Gospel Tim MacIntosh, 2022-07-04.
