Love Out Loud Joyce Meyer, 2011-11-02 Jesus said You must love the Lord your God with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind and your neighbor as yourself Luke 10:27 If one had to choose a single verse in the Bible that is a formula for successful living this would be the one to live by says Joyce Meyer love God yourself and others in that order Many Christians get mixed up about love They know they should love God and others but many do not understand that loving oneself is one third of God's equation They mistakenly think of it as selfishness or self aggrandizement Joyce Meyer believes that this misconception is one of the greatest pitfalls in the Christian journey Loving oneself in a balanced healthy manner is essential in order to have healthy relationships with God ourselves and others Drawing upon her previous work and teaching series as well as original devotions the author of Power Thoughts examines the three loves that we've been commanded to exhibit

The Law of Love and Love as a Law Mark Hopkins, 1881

Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2012-06-05 A new book by the award winning sociologist Eva Illouz on modern love Sets out to explain why love is such a painful experience for many people why we invest so much in the search for love and why it so often disappoints us

The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism The Wife Anne O. Nimmus, 2014-12-09 This is my memoir I know what you're thinking what kind of an unexceptional egocentric thirty something year old writes a memoir I'll tell you someone that had life figured out by kindergarten and by college was destined to take on the world with a certifiably impenetrable heart I was religiously raised thinking that I would never ever screw things up the way my parents had and unlike most marriages mine really was meant to be happily forever after that's until I realized I am really just one in six billion We aren't so different I am no stranger to love and fear
