ideas about women's voices and women's communities were crucial to the shaping of an English national literature after the civil wars. Women enter print culture as poets and as women by situating their writing in defence of embattled monarchy. Women poets are especially fascinated with the figure of the female monarch both real and mythic. Their sense of poetic legitimacy derives from the communities they generate around figures of female authority particularly James II's second wife Mary of Modena and later Queen Anne. To Stretch the Night Elena Popova, Luben Boykov, Tara Bryan, 1999 Women
