Paley, 1999-10-07 The interrelationship of the ideas of apocalypse and millennium is a dominant concern of British Romanticism The Book of Revelation provides a model of history in which apocalypse is followed by millennium but in their various ways the major Romantic poets Blake Wordsworth Coleridge Byron Keats and Shelley question and even at times undermine the possibility of a successful secularization of this model No matter how confidently the sequence of apocalypse and millennium seems to be affirmed in some of the major works of the period the issue is always in doubt the fear that millennium may not ensue emerges as a significant if often repressed theme in the great works of the period Related to it is the tension in Romantic poetry between conflicting models of history itself history as teleology developing towards end time and millennium and history as purposeless cycle This subject matter is traced through a selection of works by the major poets partly through an exposition of their underlying intellectual traditions and partly through a close examination of the poems themselves The Old Testament Richard S. The Prose Poem, 1999 Living with Concepts Andrew Brandel, Marco Motta, 2021-06-15 This volume examines an often taken for granted concept that of the concept itself How do we picture what concepts are what they do how they arise in the course of everyday life Challenging conventional approaches that treat concepts as mere tools at our disposal for analysis or as straightforwardly equivalent to signs to be deciphered the anthropologists and philosophers in this volume turn instead to the ways concepts are already intrinsically embedded in our forms of life and how they constitute the very substrate of our existence as humans who lead lives in language Attending to our ordinary lives with concepts requires not an ascent from the rough ground of reality into the skies of theory but rather acceptance of the fact that thinking is congenital to living with and through concepts The volume offers a critical and timely intervention into both contemporary philosophy and anthropological theory by unsettling the distinction between thought and reality that continues to be too often assumed and showing how the supposed need to grasp reality may be replaced by an acknowledgement that we are in its grip Contributors Jocelyn Benoist Andrew Brandel Michael Cordey Veena Das Rasmus Dyring and Thomas Schwarz Wentzer Michael D Jackson Michael Lambek Sandra Laugier Marco Motta Michael J Puett and Lotte Buch Segal
