Love Politics And More:

Love, Etc. Rita Felski, Camilla Schwartz, 2024-10-17 The look of love through an analytic lens Long treated with skepticism in literary and cultural studies love as a subject of serious scholarly inquiry is now attracting intense interest and renewed attention Love Etc centers on two key themes representations of love in literature and culture and love as a relationship to literature and culture How are our attitudes to love changing in the wake of new technologies and social media shifting norms around partnering marriage and divorce and feminist and queer thought Fifteen short and accessible essays cover a wide range of topics from Tinder to The Bachelor from liking trees to loving aliens from unrequited love to maternal love from polyamory to new stories of female friendship from loving physical books to theorizing love in popular music Contributors Carolina Bandinelli University of Warwick Mette Blok Roskilde University Denmark Angus Connell Brown Stephanie Burt Harvard University Anne Marie S Christensen University of Southern Denmark Jonathan Flatley Wayne State University Lily Gurton Wachter Smith College Timothy Laurie University of Technology Sydney Hanna Meretoja University of Turku Finland Kevin Ohi Boston College John Plotz Brandeis University Anna Poletti Utrecht University The Netherlands Jessica Pressman San Diego State University Biswarup Sen University of Oregon Hannah Stark University of Tasmania

Empathy in Politics and Leadership Claire Yorke, 2025-10-03 A timely account of empathy politics and leadership showing how greater understanding and connection can foster trust community and innovation Empathy has become a cliché of contemporary politics often espoused but rarely understood Yet the capacity to understand other worldviews is neither easy nor comfortable Seeing through others eyes requires strength courage integrity and an ability to reason across the harshest political divides and in a time of heightened marginalization disconnection and polarization empathy in our leaders and across society is vitally important Claire Yorke offers the first account of empathy in politics and leadership drawing on examples from across the world Including model leaders like Nelson Mandela and Jacinda Ardern as well as figures on the right such as Donald Trump who mobilize different forms of empathy Yorke asks what distinguishes empathetic leaders from the rest and examines why empathy is essential for a more human centred politics Demonstrating empathy's radical potential and disputing its connotations of weakness this book shows how we can build a political ecosystem that fosters belonging and engagement and cultivate the necessary dialogue to find common ground

The Priority of Injustice Clive Barnett, 2017-11-01 This original and ambitious work looks anew at a series of intellectual debates about the meaning of democracy Clive Barnett engages with key thinkers in various traditions of democratic theory and demonstrates the importance of a geographical imagination in interpreting contemporary political change Debates about radical democracy Barnett argues have become trapped around a set of oppositions between deliberative and agonistic theories contrasting thinkers who promote the possibility of rational agreement and those who seek to unmask the role of power or violence or difference in shaping human affairs While these debates are often framed in terms of consensus versus contestation Barnett unpacks the assumptions about space and time that underlie different understandings of the sources of political conflict and shows how these differences reflect deeper philosophical commitments to theories of creative action or revived ontologies of the political. Rather than developing ideal theories of democracy or models of proper politics, he argues that attention should turn toward the practices of claims making through which political movements express experiences of injustice and make demands for recognition, redress, and repair. By rethinking the spatial grammar of discussions of public space, democratic inclusion, and globalization, Barnett develops a conceptual framework for analyzing the crucial roles played by geographical processes in generating and processing contentious politics.

Murriyang Stan Grant, 2024-12-04

Shortlisted for the 2025 ABIA Awards Social Impact Book of the Year. Stan Grant is talking to his country in a new way. In his most poetic and inspiring work yet, he offers a means of moving beyond the binaries and embracing a path to peace and forgiveness rooted in the Wiradjuri spiritual practice of Yindymarra: deep silence and respect. Murriyang is, in part, Grant's response to the Voice referendum; it eschews politics for love. In this gorgeous, grace-filled book, he zooms out to reflect on the biggest questions ranging across the history, literature, theology, music, and art that has shaped him. Setting aside anger for kindness, he reaches past the secular to the sacred and transcendent. Informed by spiritual thinkers from around the world, Murriyang is a Wiradjuri prayer in one long uninterrupted breath, challenging Western notions of linear time in favour of a time beyond time. The Dreaming. Murriyang is also very personal: each meditation interleaved with a memory of Grant's father, a Wiradjuri cultural leader. It asks how any of us can say goodbye to those we love. This is a book for our current moment and something for the ages.

Activism in the Name of God Jami L. Carlacio, 2023-08-16

Contributions by Janet Allured, Lisa Pertillar Brevard, Jami L. Carlacio, Cheryl J. Fish, Angela Hornsby, Gutting, Jennifer McFarlane, Harris Neely, McLaughlin, Darcy Metcalfe, Phillip Luke Sinitiere, P. Jane Splawn, Laura L. Sullivan, and Hettie V. Williams. Activism in the Name of God: Religion and Black Feminist Public Intellectuals from the Nineteenth Century to the Present recognizes and celebrates twelve Black feminists who have made an indelible mark not just on Black women's intellectual history but on American intellectual history in general. The volume includes essays on Jarena Lee, Theresa Hoover, Pauli Murray, and Alexis Pauline Gumbs, to name a few. These women's commitment to the social, political, and economic well-being of oppressed people in the United States shaped their work in the public sphere, which took the form of preaching, writing, singing, marching, presiding over religious institutions, teaching, assuming leadership roles in the civil rights movement, and creating politically subversive print and digital art. This anthology offers readers exemplars with whose minds and spirits we can engage, from whose ideas we can learn, and upon whose social justice work we can build. The volume joins a burgeoning chorus of texts that calls attention to

the creativity of Black women who galvanized their readers listeners and fellow activists to seek justice for the oppressed Pushing back on centuries of institutionalized injustices that have relegated Black women to the sidelines the work of these Black feminist public intellectuals reflects both Christian gospel ethics and non Christian religious traditions that celebrate the wholeness of Black people
