Igwe, 2014-01-27 Crowds of people follow Jesus Christ for different reasons Many follow Him because they want Him to solve their problems They stop following Him once their problems are solved or not solved Only a few follow Him out of genuine love and total surrender to His lordship and salvation Following Jesus Christ is written to groom disciples who will deny themselves take up their cross daily and follow Jesus Christ all the way seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness develop personal relationship with the Lord and enjoy the ministry of the Holy Spirit thereby living victoriously every day Loving One Another Gene A. God's Guide to Freedom Carl Barrett, 2023-04-13 In a society where so many people feel helpless and hopeless they need to grasp onto someone who will release them from the bondage preventing them from attaining the beautiful things God has in store So often we don't know how to fight our spiritual battles leading to a weakened and defeated spirit This state of delusion and confusion is only the work of a dark force that's keeping people shackled in chains and suppressing their glorious life of liberty in Jesus Christ We all long for a life full of peace purpose and a plan that will lead to a glorious journey with the presence of our Lord every step of the way The reality of believing in Jesus obeying his word and knowing the truth brings spiritual freedom And such a privilege includes freedom from the bondage of falsehood For his truth sets us free This forty day devotional guide through Exodus will show us times of being in bondage to a stage of deliverance to wandering in the wilderness and how to rely on the strength and guidance of an Almighty God And that's where spiritual freedom comes to the surface in our intentional lives Guide for the Christian Perplexed Thomas P. Power, 2012-01-13 Thoughtful Christians are legitimately perplexed by a number of issues relating to the church's belief and practice They are perplexed partly because they recognize that the issues themselves are thorny and partly because they are not sure how to test the mutually inconsistent theories and explanations affirmed by diverse voices speaking with equal assurance Most Christians find relatively little occasion or encouragement to address their perplexities with intellectual candor and integrity If they dare to acknowledge their theological perplexities at all they are too often told that these perplexities are unimportant or that they can be answered very simply or that they should be left to the experts Guide for the Christian Perplexed written by members of the faculty of Wycliffe College Toronto aims to explore a diversity of issues and questions to do with our knowledge of Jesus the meaning of suffering the function of doctrine the understanding of Scripture the place of other religions the challenge of atheism the pleasures and complications of sexuality the nature of worship the way to evangelize our understanding who our neighbor is locally and globally our diversities of spirituality Here you will find thoughtful

The Evangelistic Love of God & Neighbor Bishop Scott J. Jones,2010-08-01 There are it seems as many definitions of the term evangelism as there are people doing the defining For some it means proclaiming the gospel to those who have not heard it To others it means making disciples of Jesus Christ To others it means working for the transformation of the world into the kingdom of God For still others it has principally to do with building vibrant healthy congregations Underlying this confusion is a fundamental inability to locate the practice of evangelism within one's overall theological convictions. We will never understand the part that proclamation, disciple making, kingdom building and church growth play in evangelism until we first ask a more important question: What does evangelism have to do with who God is? What is it we know about God that makes evangelism a central part of what it means to be Christian? In this comprehensive theology of evangelism, Scott J. Jones proposes to ground the practice of evangelism in an understanding of God's love for the world, specifically as seen in the incarnation of God in Christ. In Jesus, God took on all of what it means to be human. Because of this, evangelism must be a ministry to the whole person. The typical distinctions between soul winning, social action and church growth evaporate. Individual conversion and acts of mercy are part of the same ministry of bringing persons more fully into the reign of a loving God.
