Love Power And Justice:

Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1954 Speaking with understanding and force Tillich offers a basic analysis of love power justice and all concepts fundamental in the mutual relations of people of social groups and of humankind to God His concern is to penetrate to the essential or ontological foundation of the meaning of each of these words Love, Power and Justice Paul Tillich, 1954 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1974 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Johannes Oskar Tillich, 1976 Love, Power and Justice, Ontological Analyses and Ethical Applications... by Paul Tillich Paul Tillich, 1954 Love, Power and Justice Paul Tillich, 1980-01-01 Love, Power, and Justice Paul Tillich, 1971 The Socialist Emigre Brian Donnelly, 2003 Paul Tillich never abandoned the Marxist ideas he developed during the political upheaval of his native Germany in the 1920s and 1930s Indeed he subsumed and incorporated Marxism into the construction of his post German religious thinking and theology which he pioneered after fleeing to the USA in 1933 In the Socialist Emigre Brian Donnelly deals with the philosophical foundations of Tillich s theology specifically the important thread of Marxism and argues that Tillich s later and highly acclaimed theology cannot be divorced from his earlier Marxist views This makes for a seminal work which examines Tillich in a new and critical light and furthers the debate as to the structure of his philosophical theology and the nature of his eclectic thought This unique study features Tillich s boundary thought regarding Marxism and religion faith and culture history and supernaturalism and emphasizes Tillich the philosopher rather than Tillich the theologian Love and the Politics of Care Stanislava Dikova, Wendy McMahon, Jordan Savage, 2022-11-03 This edited volume offers a contemporary rethinking of the relationship between love and care in the context of neoliberal practices of professionalization and work Each of the book s three sections interrogates a particular site of care where the affective political legal and economic dimensions of care intersect in challenging ways These sites are located within a variety of institutionally managed contexts such as the contemporary university the theatre hall the prison complex the family home the urban landscape and the care industry The geographical spread of the case studies stretches across India Vietnam Sweden Brazil South Africa the UK and the US and provides broad coverage that crosses the divide between the Global North and the Global South To address this transnational interdisciplinary field of study the collection utilises insights from across the humanities and social sciences and includes contributions from literature sociology cultural and media studies philosophy feminist theory theatre art history and education These inquiries build on a variety of conceptual tools and research methods from data analysis to psychoanalytic reading Love and the Politics of Care delivers an attentive and widely relevant examination of the politics of care and makes a compelling case for an urgent reconsideration of the methods that currently structure and regulate it Tragedy, Recognition, and the Death of God Robert R. Williams, 2012-09-27 Robert R Williams offers a bold new account of divergences and convergences in the work of Hegel and Nietzsche He explores four themes the philosophy of tragedy recognition and community critique of Kant and the death of God and explicates both thinkers critiques of traditional theology and metaphysics
