Love Seems To Be Something Like That:

The 1981 Cambridge Chronicles: Art and Sex During The Reagan Reign Richard Gardner, 2014-08-10 In addition to a recounting much of the first 35 years of the authors life a complete accounting of nearly every single day of the authors life in 1981 is presented as stream of consciousness Universal (In the Realm of the Sensible) Dorothea

Olkowski, 2007-03-02 The Universal In the realm of the sensible Beyond Continental Philosophy proposes a radical new philosophical system that moves from ontology to ethics Dorothea Olkowski develops the concept of an ontological unconscious a connection arising from our sensible relation to the world that conditions encounters with the environment and with others This fundamental ontology rethinks the space time relations opened by Irigaray s notion of the interval Bergson s recollection Merleau Ponty s idea of the flesh and Deleuze s plane of immanence Writing in an original style inspired by literature and the arts Olkowski locates a realm of the senses a field of vulnerability felt as pleasures and pains This presents an aesthetic sense of something universal to all human kind as well as to the organic and inorganic world In addition to this proposal for a wider ontology the relation between traditional ontologies and politics is examined as a means of opening politics beyond a no exit or limit cycle Instead a multiplicity of self organized emergent perspectives emerges eliminating the need for the connections conjunctions and disjunctions of the Kantian paradigm at work in contemporary continental philosophy This is a timely controversial and important book that will contribute enormously to the study of Deleuze and Continental Philosophy Developing Talent Across the Life Span P. G. Heymans, C. F. M. van

Lieshout, 2000 The book sketches different approaches in the study of the development of talent and giftedness from early infancy to late adulthood New views and findings on the development of high intelligence and achievement are presented
