Pettersen,2023-03-07 In the impoverished outskirts of French cities known as the banlieues minority communities are turning to American culture history and theory to make their own voices cultures and histories visible Filmmakers have followed suit turning to Hollywood genre conventions to challenge notions of identity belonging and marginalization in mainstream French film French B Movies proposes that French banlieue films far from being a fringe genre offer a privileged site from which to understand the current state of the French film industry in an age of globalization This gritty style appears in popular arthouse films such as Mathieu Kassovitz's La Haine and Bande de filles Girlhood along with the major Netflix hit series Lupin David Pettersen traces how in these works and others directors fuse features of banlieue cinema with genre formulas associated with both Hollywood and Black cultural models as well as how transnational genre hybridizations such as B movies have become part of the ecosystem of the French film industry By combining film analysis cultural history critical theory and industry studies French B Movies reveals how featuring banlieues is as much about trying to imagine new identities and production models for French cinema as it is about representation

Modern Amazons Dominique Mainon, James Ursini, 2006-03 Book The Modern Amazons: Warrior Women on Screen documents the public's seemingly insatiable fascination with the warrior woman archetype in film and on television The book examines the cautious beginnings of new roles for women in the late fifties the rapid development of female action leads during the burgeoning second wave feminist movement in the late sixties and seventies and the present day onslaught of female action characters now leaping from page to screen The book itself is organized into chapters that group women warriors into sub genres e.g. classic Amazons like Xena: Warrior Princess and the women of the Conan films superheroes and their archenemies such as Wonder Woman Batgirl and Catwoman revenge films such as the Kill Bill movies Sexploitation and Blaxploitation films such as Coffy and the Ilsa trilogy Hong Kong cinema and warriors like Angela Mao Cynthia Rothrock and Zhang Ziyi sci fi warriors from Star Trek Blade Runner and Star Wars supersleuths and spies like the Avengers and Charlie's Angels and gothic warriors such as Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Kate Beckinsale in Underworld and Van Helsing In addition the book is lavishly illustrated with over 400 photos of these popular culture icons in action interesting articles and sidebars about themes trends weapons style and trivia as well as a complete filmography of more than 150 titles Arthur and the Invisibles Mathilde Lorit, 2006 Production details and interviews with crew who worked on the film Super Bitches and Action Babes Rikke Schubart, 2014-08-23 With actress Pam Grier's breakthrough in Coffy and Foxy Brown women entered action science fiction war westerns and martial arts films genres that had previously been considered the domain of male protagonists This ground breaking cinema however was and still is viewed with ambivalence While women were cast in new and exciting roles they did not always arrive with their femininity intact often functioning both as a sexualized spectacle and as a new female hero rather than female character This volume contains an in depth critical analysis and study of the female hero in popular film from 1970 to 2006 It examines five female archetypes the dominatrix the Amazon the daughter the mother and the rape avenger The entrance of the female hero into films written by produced by and made for men is viewed through the lens of feminism and post feminism arguments Analyzed works include films with actors Michelle Yeoh and Meiko Kaji the Alien films the Lara Croft franchise Charlie's Angels and television productions such as Xena Warrior Princess and Alias

Reimagining the Human in Contemporary French Science Fiction Christina Lord, 2023-04-15 The study of French science fiction even in France remains an underexploited field Only recently have French literary scholars been able to gain recognition for the validity of studying SF but their works are often literary histories This is the first book length study to take into account both French and Anglo American intellectual trends theories and SF scholarship and apply them to a corpus of French works It shows how contemporary French SF imagines two broad philosophical inquiries into the powerful yet terrifying geological age of the Anthropocene posthumanism and transhumanism While the posthumanist perspective calls attention to the interdependence and co evolution of humans and nonhumans within a complex ecosystem of life the transhumanist view of coping with the Anthropocene offers more pragmatic tool based solutions rather than a reworking of the human imagination Given the history of philosophical thought's entanglement with literature in France French SF can tell us a lot about this existential crisis of Anthropos as both destroyer and savior of worlds and bodies alike With a focus on encounters between humans nonhumans and posthumans in selected works this book investigates both the immaterial the psychological state of the mind and material the body stakes of posthumanist or transhumanist thinking in French SF

Concentrationary Imaginaries Griselda Pollock, Max Silverman, 2015-11-30 In 1945 French political prisoners returning from the concentration camps of Germany coined the phrase the concentrationary universe to describe the camps as a terrible political experiment in the destruction of the human This book shows how the unacknowledged legacy of a totalitarian mentality has seeped into the deepest recesses of everyday popular culture It asks if the concentrationary now infests our cultural imaginary normalizing what was once considered horrific and exceptional by transforming into entertainment violations of human life Drawing on the political philosophy of Hannah Arendt and the analyses of violence by Agamben Virilio Lacoue Labarthe and Nancy it also offers close readings of films by Cavani and Haneke that identify and critically expose such an imaginary and hence contest its lingering force Fifty Contemporary Filmmakers Yvonne Tasker,2002 From Luc Besson to Quentin Tarantino Fifty Contemporary Film makers offers an up to date guide to the individuals who are shaping modern cinema The Seeing Century ,2021-10-25 The twentieth century with all its turbulence and change its conflicts and its discoveries was perhaps above all the century of cinema and The Seeing Century offers an innovative international and interdisciplinary exploration of the role cinema plays in contemporary life and culture and the complex and fascinating relationship between screen images and our changing concepts of personal and national identity Rejecting the compartmentalisation that has traditionally marked film studies and confronting an impressively eclectic range of material fifteen essays by leading academics from around the world cut across divergent cultures languages and genres mainstream Hollywood rubs shoulders with low budget Icelandic or Sicilian cinema and the popular and the esoteric feature alongside each other In this way the reader is offered a stimulating overview which directly addresses the contradictions and ambiguities inherent in the relationship between film and identity and reveals the vibrancy of contemporary film debate to which The Seeing Century makes an important and thought provoking contribution
