

An aerial photograph of a coastal landscape. At the top, there is a strip of green vegetation. Below it is a wide, light-colored sandy beach. A dark, reddish-brown object, possibly a log or a piece of driftwood, lies horizontally across the middle of the beach. The bottom half of the image shows the ocean with greenish waves breaking onto the shore, creating white foam.

and sexuality categories black and white men and women gay and straight which is a feature of most Western societies More specifically it analyzes the boundaries and edges of these categories and concepts Across nine chapters contributors reveal that such binaries are often too restrictive Through a series of case studies they consider how these various concepts overlap coincide and at times conflict They investigate the tension between these classifications that in turn produce individual speaking positions Many people indigenous native Anglo settler recent migrants of diverse ethnic backgrounds gay transgender queer occupy an in between position that is strategically shifting with the social political and economic circumstances of the individual In Boundary Writing the reader will journey through various complex permutations of identity and in particular the ways in which indigeneity race sex and gender interact and even counter act one another Contributors Erez Cohen Aaron Corn Bruno David Neparrna Gumbula Michele Grossman Myfanwy McDonald Clive Moore Stephen Pritchard Liz Reed Lynette Russell World Englishes in the 21st Century Sofia Rüdiger, Theresa Neumaier, Sven Leuckert and Sarah Buschfeld, Twenty years after Edgar W Schneider s publication of the Dynamic Model the field of World Englishes is as vibrant as ever The further spread and entrenchment of English around the world as a result of globalisation but also localisation tendencies and in particular the spread of the language and its multiple varieties through the new media has led to even further dispersion and contact scenarios many of which challenge early conceptualisations of the World Englishes paradigm This volume is dedicated to new perspectives approaches and developments in the field how they fit in with earlier research in the paradigm how they can be conceptualised and which challenges they bring along In addition the collection showcases some of the methodological diversity in and the transdisciplinary nature of modern World Englishes research
