Mad About Theatre:

Mad about Theatre Richard Hornby, 1996 Applause Books Mad About Theatre is a systematic analysis of the major issues confronting our theatre today The Decline of Broadway The Generally Poor Quality of American Stage Acting The Pretentiousness of our Avant Garde The Narrowness of our Playwriting Broadway In Search of a Musical Fix Subsidized British Theatre in the Age of Thatcher and Beyond The Inflated Directing of the Classics The Growing Vitality of our Regional Theatres in Playwriting as well as Acting and Directing The Innovative Use of the Theatre by Minority Groups Mad About Theatre is not only a major contribution to contemporary theatre criticism but a call to account for a culture in danger of losing its way Taken together these reviews from The Hudson Review weave a powerful indictment against the status quo while offering a constructive blueprint for the future Theatre and National Identity Nadine Holdsworth, 2014-06-27 This book explores the ways that pre existing national works or national theatre sites can offer a rich source of material for speaking to the contemporary moment because of the resonances or associations they offer of a different time place politics or culture Featuring a broad international scope it offers a series of thought provoking essays that explore how playwrights directors theatre makers and performance artists have re staged or re worked a classic national play performance theatrical form or theatre space in order to engage with conceptions of and questions around the nation nationalism and national identity in the contemporary moment opening up new ways of thinking about or problematizing questions around the nation and national identity Chapters ask how productions engage with a particular moment in the national psyche in the context of internationalism and globalization for example as well as how productions explore the interconnectivity of nations intercultural agendas or cosmopolitanism They also explore questions relating to the presence of migrants exiles or refugees and the legacy of colonial histories and post colonial subjectivities. The volume highlights how theatre and performance has the ability to contest and unsettle ideas of the nation and national identity through the use of various sites stagings and performance strategies and how contemporary theatres have portrayed national agendas and characters at a time of intense Bentley's Miscellany Charles Dickens, William Harrison Ainsworth, Albert Smith, 1851 cultural flux and repositioning

The Musical World ,1856 Theatres in Los Angeles Suzanne Tarbell Cooper, Amy Ronnebeck Hall, Marc Wanamaker, 2008 Los Angeles and the movies grew up together and a natural extension of the picture business was the premium presentation of the product the biggest best and brightest theatres imaginable The magnificent movie palaces along Broadway in downtown Los Angeles still represent the highest concentration of vintage theatres in the world With Hollywood and the movies practically synonymous the theatres in the studios neighborhood were state of the art for showbiz whether they were designed for film vaudeville or stage productions From the elegant Orpheum and the exotic Grauman's Chinese to the modest El Rey this volume celebrates the architecture and social history of Los Angeles's unique collection of historic theatres past and present The common threads that connect them all from the grandest movie palace to the smallest neighborhood theatre are stories and the ghosts of audiences past waiting in the dark for the show to begin Culture in Manchester Janet Wolff, 2015-11-01 This book brings together studies of cultural institutions in Manchester from 1850 to the present day giving an unprecedented account of the city's cultural evolution. These bring to light the remarkable range of Manchester's contribution to modern cultural life including the role of art education popular theatre religion pleasure gardens clubs and societies The chapters show the resilience and creativity of Manchester's cultural institutions since 1850 challenging any simple narrative of urban decline following the erosion of Lancashire's industrial base at the same time illustrating the range of activities across the social classes This book will appeal to everyone interested in the cultural life of the city of Manchester including cultural historians sociologists and urban geographers as well as general readers with interests in the city It is written by leading international authorities including Viv Gardner Stephen Milner Mike Savage Bill Feminism, Adult Education and Creative Possibility Darlene E. Clover, Kathy Sanford, Kerry Williams and Janet Wolff Harman, 2022-04-07 This book argues that feminist aesthetics as practices of adult education can inform our responses to gendered racial class and ecological injustices It illustrates the critical creative and provocative pedagogical theorising research and engagement work of feminist adult educators and researchers who work in diverse community institutional and social movement contexts across North America and Europe This book captures the complexity diversity energy and imagination of those who theorise decolonise facilitate investigate visualize story and create within the politics of gender in The Theatre, 1897 Vol for 1888 includes dramatic directory for Feb Dec vol for 1889 includes justice and radical change dramatic directory for Ian May Theatre Worlds in Motion S.E. Wilmer, H. van Maanen, 2024-04-02 Theatre Worlds in Motion aims to clarify the different theatre traditions and practices in Western Europe from a historical and sociological perspective The book grew out of a perceived need among theatre scholars who had recognised that while they understood the theatre system of their own country they often found it difficult to discover how it compared with other countries The chapters analyse the basic components and dynamics of theatre systems in seventeen Western European nations in order to elucidate how the systems function in general and how they vary in different cultures The book provides a sense of what has been happening recently in particular countries and indicates how the theatre systems have developed over time and have led to the current practices and structures Each national chapter considers the historical tradition and place of theatre within the country and analyses the role of the state in fostering theatre during the last fifty years Material from the national chapters has been used in two general chapters at the beginning and end of the book to provide an overview to developments in all Western Europe The introductory chapter on decentralisation discusses the tendency amongst governments to encourage cultural development outside the national capital by providing subsidy for regional theatre venues and theatre companies and in many cases by developing the decision making and budgetary powers for the theatre to regional and local authorities The epilogue on the functioning of theatre examines the common structures of theatre in society as described in the seventeen national chapters and it proposes areas for future research
