Mad Dogs An Englishwoman:

Mad Dogs and an Englishwoman Polly Evans, 2008-03-01 Mad Dogs and an Englishwoman Crystal Rogers, 2000 I shut my eyes and see the little girl I knew myself to be eighty years ago racing barefoot down a slope after a bunch of colourful fluttering butterflies Not to catch them Not to break their wings Not to preserve them in a jar to show off to friends I know now that the girl was chasing after them to share their freedom Mad Dogs and an Englishwoman is the remarkable autobiography of Crystal Rogers who dedicated her life to the welfare of stray uncared for animals in India and founded CUPA Compassion Unlimited Plus Action in Bangalore It tells how Rogers who was born in India returned to Delhi from England in 1958 and was horrified by the barbarous methods by which animals are slaughtered for consumption the cruelty involved in the transport of domestic animals the distress and terror of animals kept in captivity for medical research and the agony of sick and crippled animals who are prodded on to work or abandoned because they no longer serve any useful purpose Her deep sympathy for their plight resulted in her opening an animal shelter called The Animals Friend in Mehrauli Soon she also started taking care of the homeless diseased and dying people she found on Delhi's streets The book is full of memorable anecdotes some touching some hilarious about the animals and people Rogers encountered over the next twenty years Written in the best traditions of James Herriot and Gerald Durrell this is at once a delightful account of quirky human and animal behaviour and a powerful argument for animal activism in India Mad Dogs and an Englishwoman Polly Evans, 2009-01-27 Polly Evans had a mission to learn everything possible about the howling tail wagging world of sled dogs Fool's errand Or the adventure of a lifetime The intrepid world traveler was about to find out In the dead of winter Polly Evans ventured to Canada's far northwest where temperatures plunge to minus forty and the sun rises for just a few hours each day But though she was prepared for the cold she never anticipated how profoundly she'd be affected by that blissful and austere place In a pristine landscape patrolled by wolves and caribou the wannabe musher was soon learning the ropes of arctic dogsledding careening across the silent tundra with her own team of yapping leaping canines Shivering but undaunted Polly follows the tracks of the legendary Yukon Quest a dogsledding race more arduous than the Iditarod witnessing a life and death spectacle she'll never forget Along the way she makes a stop at the Santa Clause house in North Pole Alaska where the post office delivers unstamped mail and witnesses the astonishing northern lights weaving green and red across the sky And before the snows melt in spring Polly will have discovered a deep affection for the loving mischievous huskies whose courage and enthusiasm escort her through the delights and dangers of living life at the extreme in one of the most forbidding places on earth The Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine, 1866 The Englishwoman's Review of Social and Industrial Questions Janet Murray, Myra Stark, 2016-12-19 The Englishwoman's Review which published from 1866 to 1910 participated in and recorded a great change in the range of possibilities open to women The ideal of the magazine was the idea of the emerging emancipated middle class woman economic independence from men choice of occupation participation in the male enterprises of commerce and government access to higher education admittance to the male professions particularly medicine and of course the power of suffrage equal to that of men First published in 1979 this twenty third volume contains issues from 1890 With an informative introduction by Janet Horowitz Murray and Myra Stark and an index compiled by Anna Clark this set is an invaluable resource to those studying nineteenth and early twentieth century feminism and the women s movement in Britain The English Woman's Journal , Yukon Polly Evans,2010

Canada s Yukon is one the world s last great wildernesses where bears moose and caribou roam It s a place where hikers paddlers skiers and mushers can travel for days without seeing another human soul where the northern lights dance green and red across starry skies and where glaciers tumble mountain peaks soar and tundra shrubs scream scarlet as summer turns to fall Bradt s Yukon is the only guidebook dedicated to this natural and historical wonderland Offering practical advice on everything from where to pan for gold to how to avoid being eaten by a bear alongside quirky anecdotes such as the story behind the sourtoe cocktail a shot of whisky garnished with a severed human toe it s the perfect companion for highway drivers cruise ship passengers and outdoors enthusiasts alike Dogs in the Leisure Experience Neil Carr,2014-11-19 This book explores the social and cultural constructions and debates of what are dogs and what is leisure It looks at how working dogs play a significant role in leisure experiences such as ensuring the safety of air transport and considers the differing roles and changing acceptance of dogs involvement in sport Within the setting of the animal welfare and sentience debates it examines the leisure needs of dogs and their owners Providing an original contribution to our understanding of dogs as both participants and objects in the leisure experience this book is a useful resource for researchers in leisure hospitality and tourism Indifference Naisargi N. Davé,2023-06-30 In Indifference Naisargi N Dav examines the complex worlds of animalists and animalism in India Through ethnographic fieldwork with animal healers animal activists farmers laborers transporters and animals themselves and moving across animal shelters and dairy farms to city streets and abattoirs Dav shows how human animal relations often manifest through care and violence More surprisingly what Dav also finds animating interspecies relationality in India is an ethic of indifference that is an orientation of mutual regard rather than curiosity love desire or animus For Dav indifference is a respect for others in their otherness that allows human and nonhuman animals to flourish in immanent encounters Indifference then becomes the basis for an interspecies ethics and a method of care and practice in everyday life With indifference Dav describes both a mode of relationality in the world and a scholarly approach seeking what is possible when we approach ethico political concepts with indifference rather than commitment or antagonism Moments of indifference Dav contends offer the promise of otherwise worlds Going Places Robert Burgin,2013-01-08 Successfully navigate the rich world of travel narratives and identify fiction and nonfiction read alike with this detailed and expertly constructed guide Just as savvy travelers make use of guidebooks to help navigate the hundreds of countries around the globe smart librarians need a guidebook that makes sense of the world of travel narratives
