Madama Butterfly/Madamu Batafurai Arthur Groos,2023-02-16 Puccini s famous but controversial Madama Butterfly reflects a practice of temporary marriage between Western men and Japanese women in nineteenth century treaty ports Groos book identifies the plot s origin in an eye witness account and traces its transmission via John Luther Long s short story and David Belasco s play Archival sources many unpublished reveal how Puccini and his librettists imbued the opera with differing constructions of the action and its heroine Groos s analysis suggests how they constructed a contemporary music drama with multiple possibilities for interpreting the misalliance between a callous American naval officer and an impoverished fifteen year old geisha providing a more complex understanding of the heroine s presumed marriage As an orientaling tragedy with a racially inflected representation of Cio Cio San the opera became a lightning rod for identity politics in Japan while also stimulating decolonizing transpositions into indigenous theatre traditions such as Bunraku puppet theatre and Takarazuka musicals Sexual Naturalization Susan Koshy,2004 Situating her discussion within the context of the history of antimiscegenation regulation in the United States and its construction of power relations and racial meaning Koshy English and Asian American studies U of Illinois at Urbana Champaign conducts close readings of narratives of white Asian miscegenation in order to track the shifts in racial and sexual ideologies encoded in the texts Paying particular attention to the differences in the way Asian man white woman dyads and white man Asian woman dyads signified differing representations of Asian assimilability she looks at John Luther Long s Madame Butterfly D W Griffith s film Broken Blossoms the writings of Filipino American Carlos Bulosan and Wife and Jasmine by Indian American Bharati Mukherjee The Birth of Whiteness Daniel Bernardi,1996 As indelible components of the history of the United States race and racism have permeated nearly all aspects of life cultural economic political and social In this first anthology on race in early cinema fourteen scholars examine the origins dynamics and ramifications of racism and Eurocentrism and the resistance to both during the early years of American motion pictures Any discussion of racial themes and practices in any arena inevitably begins with the definition of race Is race an innate and biologically determined essence or is it a culturally constructed category Is the question irrelevant Perhaps race exists as an ever changing historical and social formation that regardless of any standard definition involves exploitation degradation and struggle In his introduction Daniel Bernardi writes that early cinema has been a clear partner in the hegemonic struggle over the meaning of race and that it was steadfastly aligned with a Eurocentric world view at the expense of those who didn't count as white The contributors to this work tackle these problems and address such subjects as biological determinism miscegenation Manifest Destiny assimilation and nativism and their impact on early cinema Analyses of The Birth of a Nation Romona Nanook of the North and Madame Butterfly and the directorial styles of D W Griffith Oscar Micheaux and Edwin Porter are included in the volume

Choreographing Asian America Yutian Wong, 2011-07-21 Poised at the intersection of Asian American studies and dance studies Choreographing Asian America is the first book length examination of the role of Orientalist discourse in shaping Asian Americanist entanglements with U S modern dance history Moving beyond the acknowledgement that modern dance has its roots in Orientalist appropriation Yutian Wong considers the effect that invisible Orientalism has on the reception of work by Asian American choreographers and the conceptualization of Asian American performance as a category Drawing on ethnographic and choreographic research methods the author follows the work of Club O Noodles a Vietnamese American performance ensemble to understand how Asian American artists respond to competing narratives of representation aesthetics and social activism that often frame the production of Asian American performance
