Madder Red A History Of Luxury And Trade:

Madder Red Robert Chenciner,2003-09-02 Madder red is an ancient dyestuff extracted from the root of the madder plant growing in many countries around the world The secret and devilishly complex Oriental dyeing process to obtain the lustrous colour known as Turkey Red was avidly sought by Europeans from the time before the fall of Ancient Rome It was finally cracked by the French about 1760 who were able to dye wool silk and cotton bright red After the lowlands of the Caspian Caucasus had been subdued by the Russians in the early 1800s madder was cultivated there and rapidly became the main crop The quest for Turkey Red went hand in hand with an avalanche of scientific research which not only improved the yield of dyestuff from the roots but led to its chemical synthesis and in 1870 the collapse of the world wide madder industry Many of the nascent dye companies grew into chemical giants of our time Further regional and cultural background may be found in Chenciner s Daghestan Tradition and Survival also published in the Caucasus World series Madder Red ,2000

Nature's Palette David Lee,2010-09-03 Though he didn t realize it at the time David Lee began this book twenty five years ago as he was hiking in the mountains outside Kuala Lumpur Surrounded by the wonders of the jungle Lee found his attention drawn to one plant in particular a species of fern whose electric blue leaves shimmered amidst the surrounding green The evolutionary wonder of the fern s extravagant beauty filled Lee with awe and set him on a career long journey to understand everything about plant colors Nature s Palette is the fully ripened fruit of that journey a highly illustrated immensely entertaining exploration of the science of plant color Beginning with potent reminders of how deeply interwoven plant colors are with human life and culture from the shifting hues that told early humans when fruits and vegetables were edible to the indigo dyes that signified royalty for later generations Lee moves easily through details of pigments the evolution of color perception the nature of light and dozens of other topics Through a narrative peppered with anecdotes of a life spent pursuing botanical knowledge around the world he reveals the profound ways that efforts to understand and exploit plant color have influenced every sphere of human life from organic chemistry to Renaissance painting to the highly lucrative orchid trade Lavishly illustrated and packed with remarkable details sure to delight gardeners and naturalists alike Nature s Palette will enchant anyone who s ever wondered about red roses and blue violets or green thumbs Pilgrimage Mzia

Ebanoidze,John Wilkinson,2013-11-19 A remarkable record of a pilgrimage through Turkey Greece and the Levant The Introduction examines the historical background to his travels and life which ended in poverty and exile Also included are a historically annotated gazetteer and extensive bibliography The Kingdom of Armenia Mack Chahin,2013-11-05 While the majority of contemporary works on Armenia concentrate on the modern era The Kingdom of Armenia takes its beginning in the third century BC with the ancient literate peoples of Mesopotamia who had commercial interests in the land of Armenia and continues with a comprehensive overview through to the end of the Middle Ages Islam and The English

Enlightenment Zulfiqar Ali Shah,2022-06-02 Never before to my knowledge has the cross fertilisation of Western and Islamic ideas been so encyclopedically documented as it is here In reading Islam and the English Enlightenment you will never see the relationship between Islam and the West in the same way again ROBERT F SHEDI NGER Professor of Religion Luther College Dr Zulfiqar Ali Shah's Islam and the English Enlightenment is one of the most profoundly enlightening books I have read in years Dr Shah compellingly demonstrates that the thinkers of English Enlightenment were undeniably indebted to Islamic sciences and thought and that the foundational principles of rationalist thought scientific inquiry and religious toleration were deeply anchored in the Islamic tradition KHALED ABOU EL FADL Omar Azmeralda Alfi Distinguished Professor of Law UCLA School of Law This is a book that anyone interested in stepping outside a Eurocentric view of the rise of the West and of the modern age must read MICHAEL A GILLESPIE Professor of Political Science Philosophy Duke University Dr Shah convincingly demonstrates the central role that Islam played in shaping the values and ideas of the Enlightenment reformers such as John Locke and Isaac Newton who had helped to produce the modern world GERALD MACLEAN Emeritus Professor University of Exeter

The Literature of Georgia Donald Rayfield, 2013-12-16 The first comprehensive and objective history of the literature of Georgia revealed to be unique among those of the former Byzantine and Russian empires both in its quality and its 1500 years history It is examined in the context of the extraordinarily diverse influences which affected it from Greek and Persian to Russian and modern European literature and the folklore of the Caucasus

The Materiality of Color Andrea Feeser, 2017-07-05 Although much has been written on the aesthetic value of color there are other values that adhere to it with economic and social values among them Through case studies of particular colors and colored objects this volume demonstrates just how complex the history of color is by focusing on the diverse social and cultural meanings of color the trouble pain and suffering behind the production and application of these colors the difficult technical processes for making and applying color and the intricacy of commercial exchanges and knowledge transfers as commodities and techniques moved from one region to another By emphasizing color's materiality the way in which it was produced exchanged and used by artisans artists and craftspersons contributors draw attention to the disjuncture between the beauty of color and the blood sweat and tears that went into its production circulation and application as well as to the complicated and varied social meanings attached to color within specific historical and social contexts This book captures color's global history with chapters on indigo plantations in India and the American South cochineal production in colonial Oaxaca the taste for brightly colored Chinese objects in Europe and the thriving trade in vermilion between Europeans and Native Americans To underscore the complexity of the technical knowledge behind color production there are chapters on the discovery of Prussian blue Brazilian feather techn and wallpaper production To sound the depths of color's capacity for social and cultural meaning making there are chapters that explore the significance of black ink in Shakespeare's sonnets red threads in women's needlework samplers blues in Mayan sacred statuary and greens and yellows in colored glass bracelets that were traded across the Arabian desert in the late Middle Ages The purpose of this book is to recover color s complex and sometimes morally troubling past and in doing so      Archaeological Chemistry Zvi Goffer,2007-10-16 The chemical study of archaeological materials Archaeological Chemistry Second Edition is about the application of the chemical sciences to the study of ancient man and his material activities The text of the book centers on the use of chemical methods but also refers to the contributions of physics biology and genetics to archaeological research Subjects discussed in the book include the determination of the nature of ancient materials their provenance and age the technologies used for the production of man made materials and the analysis of ancient human and animal remains such as bone dried blood and coprolites which yields information on ancient diets kinship habitancy and migratory patterns New developments in analytical chemistry and in related disciplines which have contributed to archaeological research since the first edition of the book was published are dealt with in this edition which also includes Updated information on the study of the nature age and provenance of ancient materials New sections on organic biological and genetic studies Glossary Extensive bibliography The book is intended primarily for archaeologists physical anthropologists and students of archaeology and physical anthropology but will also be of use to conservators curators and art historians Natural scientists reading it will become acquainted with advances in archaeological research which were made possible only by the application of chemical physical and biological methods and techniques      The Armenian Kingdom in Cilicia During the Crusades Jacob Ghazarian,2018-10-24 This unique study bridges the history of the Crusades with the history of Armenian nationalism and Christianity To the Crusaders Armenian Christians presented the only reliable allies in Anatolia and Asia Minor and were pivotal in the founding of the Crusader principalities of Edessa Antioch Jerusalem and Tripoli The Anatolian kingdom of Cilicia was founded by the Roupenian dynasty mid 10th to late 11th century and grew under the collective rule of the Hetumian dynasty late 12th to mid 14th century After confrontations with Byzantium the Seljuks and the Mongols the Second Crusade led to the crowning of the first Cilician king despite opposition from Byzantium Following the Third Crusade power shifted in Cilicia to the Lusignans of Cyprus mid to late 14th century culminating in the final collapse of the kingdom at the hands of the Egyptian Mamluks      The World of Renaissance Italy Joseph P. Byrne,2017-06-22 Students of the Italian Renaissance who wish to go beyond the standard names and subjects will find in this text abundant information on the lives customs beliefs and practices of those who lived during this exciting time period The World of Renaissance Italy A Daily Life Encyclopedia engages all of the Italian peninsula from the Black Death 1347 1352 to 1600 Unlike other encyclopedic works about the Renaissance era this book deals exclusively with Italy revealing the ways common Italian people lived and experienced the events and technological developments that marked the Renaissance era The coverage specifically spotlights marginal or traditionally marginalized groups including women homosexuals Jews the elderly and foreign communities in Italian cities The entries in this two volume set are organized into 10 sections of 25 alphabetically listed entries each Among the broad sections are art fashion family and gender food and drink housing and community politics recreation and social customs and war The See Also sources for each article are listed by section for easy reference a feature that students and researchers will greatly appreciate The extensive collection of contemporary documents include selections from a diary letters a travel journal a merchant s inventory Inquisition testimony a metallurgical handbook and text by an artist that describes what the author feels constitutes great work Each of the primary source documents accompanies a specific article and provides an added dimension and degree of insight to the material

Armenian Neume System of Notation R. A. At'ayan,Vrej N Nersessian,Vrej N. Nersessian,2013-11-19 The study of the Armenian system of notation called Khazs Neumes is of significance both for Armenian and Byzantine music from a historical and aesthetic point of view Over the centuries the Armenian people have created a musical culture which is largely inaccessible because of the fact that to this day the medieval notation of this music has not been deciphered Prof R A At ayan s unique study based on the abundant manuscript sources of the Institute of Ancient Manuscripts Erevan not only traces the origin and development of this notation system convincingly but also re creates the tunes of the numerous chants and songs composed over the centuries

Art, Race, and Fantastic Color Change in the Victorian Novel Jessica Durgan,2018-12-12 As a study of color in the Victorian novel this volume notices and analyzes a peculiar literary phenomenon in which Victorian authors who were also trained as artists dream up fantastically colored characters for their fiction These strange and eccentric characters include the purple madwoman Bertha Mason in Charlotte Bront s Jane Eyre 1847 the blue gentleman Oscar Dubourg from Wilkie Collins s Poor Miss Finch 1872 the red peddler Diggory Venn in Thomas Hardy s The Return of the Native 1878 and the little yellow girls of Arthur Conan Doyle s The Yellow Face 1893 and Frances Hodgson Burnett s The Secret Garden 1911 While color has been historically viewed as suspicious and seductive in Western culture the Victorian period constitutes a significant moment in the history of color the rapid development of new color technologies and the upheavals of the first avant garde art movements result in an increase in coloring s prestige in the art academies At the same time race science appropriates color using it as a criterion for classification in the establishment of global racial hierarchies These artist authors draw on color s traditional association with constructions of otherness to consider questions of identity and difference through the imaginative possibilities of color

Traces of Vermeer Jane Jelley, 2017-07-21 Johannes Vermeer's luminous paintings are loved and admired around the world yet we do not understand how they were made We see sunlit spaces the glimmer of satin silver and linen we see the softness of a hand on a lute string or letter We recognise the distilled impression of a moment of time and we feel it to be real We might hope for some answers from the experts but they are confounded too Even with the modern technology available they do not know why there is no evidence of any preliminary drawing why there are shifts in focus and why his pictures are unusually blurred Some wonder if he might possibly have used a camera obscura to capture what he saw before him The few traces Vermeer has left behind tell us little there are no letters or diaries and no reports of him at work Jane Jelley has taken a new path in this detective story A painter herself she has worked with the materials of his time the cochineal insect and lapis lazuli the sheep bones soot earth and rust She shows us how painters made their pictures layer by layer she investigates old secrets and hears travellers tales She explores how Vermeer could have used a lens in the creation of his masterpieces The clues were there all along After all this time now we can unlock the studio door and catch a glimpse of Vermeer inside painting light

Barbarous Antiquity Miriam Jacobson, 2014-10-13 In the late sixteenth century English merchants and diplomats ventured into the eastern Mediterranean to trade directly with the Turks the keepers of an important emerging empire in the Western Hemisphere and these initial exchanges had a profound effect on English literature While the theater investigated representations of religious and ethnic identity in its portrayals of Turks and Muslims poetry Miriam Jacobson argues explored East West exchanges primarily through language and the material text Just as English markets were flooded with exotic goods so was the English language awash in freshly imported words describing items such as sugar jewels plants spices paints and dyes as well as technological advancements such as the use of Arabic numerals in arithmetic and the concept of zero Even as these Eastern words and imports found their way into English poetry poets wrestled with paying homage to classical authors and styles In Barbarous Antiquity Jacobson reveals how poems adapted from Latin or Greek sources and set in the ancient classical world were now reoriented to reflect a contemporary mercantile Ottoman landscape As Renaissance English writers including Shakespeare Jonson Marlowe and Chapman weighed their reliance on classical poetic models against contemporary cultural exchanges a new form of poetry developed positioned at the crossroads of East and West ancient and modern Building each chapter around the intersection of an Eastern import and a classical model Jacobson shows how Renaissance English poetry not only reconstructed the classical past but offered a critique of that very enterprise with a new set of words and metaphors imported from the East

The Macedonian War Machine, 359-281 BC David Karunanithy, 2013-11-19 A splendid and scholarly work an essential guide for all serious students of military history and warfare in the age of Alexander Professor Waldemar Heckel University of Calgary The army that emerged from the reforms of Philip II of Macedon proved to be one of the most successful in the whole of the ancient period Much has been written on aspects of Macedonian warfare particularly the generalship of its most famous proponent Alexander the Great yet many studies retread the same paths and draw conclusion on the same narrow evidential base while leaving important aspects and sources of information untouched David Karunanithy concentrates on filling the gaps in existing studies presenting and studying evidence frequently overlooked or ignored The book is divided into four sections each presenting a wealth of detail on various aspects Preparation including chapters on training techniques various aspects of arms and armor production and supply and the provision and management of cavalry mounts Support eg noncombatant specialists bridge building field engineering construction of field camps and little known combat units in Asia Dress and Battle Equipment drawing on much neglected evidence and including such details as officers plumes wreaths and finger rings Alexander s Veterans and Life on Campaign the Silver Shields baggage trains and personal kit servants and families camp life and recreation Karunanithy s achievement is to draw together all the available evidence artistic numeristic archaeological and literary producing a thoroughly readable and coherent work it should be a mandatory acquisition for anyone with an interest in the history of ancient Macedonia and its military Ancient Warfare

Conn's Biological Stains Richard Horobin, John Kiernan, 2020-08-13 Published on behalf of the Biological Stain Commission For 75 years Conn s Biological Stains has been a standard reference for all those who used dyes and colorants in the biological and medical sciences This long awaited tenth edition appears 25 years after R D Lillie s ninth and has been completely rewritten to reflect the increase in range of uses Although the staining of microscopical preparations continues to expand the uses of dyes and fluorochromes now extend far beyond this traditional application This book provides the first critical overview of the whole range of low molecular weight fluorescent probes outside the catalogue literature The first ten chapters are essays by leading experts on the important aspects of colorants and their uses Most of the remainder of the book consists of descriptions by Dr Horobin of the properties and recent applications of hundreds of individual compounds in about twenty chemical classes The last chapter reviews the procedures employed at the Biological Stain Commission s laboratory to assay and test dyes and certify them as suitable for their intended applications

Colour Chemistry Robert M Christie, 2015-11-09 This revised and up dated second edition provides a current insight into how the fundamental principles of the chemistry of colour are applied in dyes and pigments The text has been expanded and re written throughout while largely maintaining the structure of the first edition In particular the chapter on functional dyes has been substantially re written to embrace the significant developments in chemistry and technology that this area has experienced in the last decade As industry and society have become increasingly sensitive towards environmental issues the chapter describing how the colour industry has been responding is expanded to reflect this growing importance A new chapter is introduced on colour in cosmetics with particular emphasis on hair dyes reflecting the growing international industrial significance of this topic This chapter is co written with Dr Olivier Morel Colour Chemistry will be of interest to academics and industrialists who are specialists in colour science or who have involvement with the diverse range of coloured materials for example traditional application in textiles paints printing inks plastics and cosmetics and functional applications in electronics and biology Broad and balanced in its coverage this book provides an introduction to the chemistry of colour that is ideal for students graduates and those in industry and academia seeking an introduction to the topic Robert Christie is a Professor in Colour Chemistry and Technology at Heriot Watt University Scotland and a Distinguished Adjunct Professor at the King Abdulaziz University Saudi Arabia He also acts as a consultant to the colour manufacturing and application industry worldwide
