Identity Lessons Maria Mazziotti Gillan, Jennifer

Gillan, 1999-02-01 In stories and poems that explore how our society shapes us Identity Lessons features a wide array of ethnic perspectives on growing up in America Leading the reader into the living rooms boardrooms classrooms and movie houses of America distinguished writers from all points of the American ethnic landscape shed light on the space between conformity and difference and examine the struggle between the need to belong and the pull of one's cultural roots With insight wit and poignancy the contributors to this anthology recall their attempts to reconcile family from the old country with the powerful messages about race gender and class confronting them in their new surroundings A collection of superb and moving writing Identity Lessons deconstructs conceptions of personal and national identity and forms an indispensable primer for understanding our cultural selves American Machinist, 1918 Exiled Memories Zohreh

Sullivan, 2010-09-23 I feel I am the wandering Jew who has no place to which she belongs I thought I could settle down but can't imagine staying Whenever I bought a bar of soap and two came in the package I thought there would be no need to buy a package of two because I would never last through the second Why Because I knew I was returning to Iran tomorrow So too I would buy the smallest size of toothpastes and jars of oil Putting down roots here is an impossibility These are the words of one Iranian emigre driven from Tehran by the revolution of 1979 They are echoed time and again in this powerful portrayal of loss and survival Impelled by these words and her own concerns about nationality and identity Zohreh Sullivan has gathered together here the voices of sixty exiles and emigres The speakers come from various ethnic and religious backgrounds and range in age from thirteen to eighty eight Although most are from the middle class they work in a variety of occupations in the United States But whatever their differences here they engage in remembering the past producing a discourse about their lives and negotiating the troubled transitions from one culture to another Unlike many other Iranian oral history projects Exiled Memories looks at the reconstruction of memory and identity through diasporic narratives through a focus on the Americas rather than on Iran The narratives included here reveal the complex ways in which events and places transform identities how overnight radicals become conservatives friends become enemies the strong become weak Indeed the narratives themselves serve this function serving to transfer or transform power and establish credibility They reveal a diverse group of people in the process of knitting the story of themselves with the story of the collective after it has been torn apart A MYSTICAL CONNECTION H. Torrevillas, M.D., 2011-03 From early childhood through high school medical school and in his practice of Medicine in the Philippines and Australia he had encountered strange experiences some possessed for 20 minutes and messages were given to him At 48 Jesus Christ appeared before him in the cloud There are many other strange encounters in the life of the author A key was given to him to DECODE the symbolologies in the Book of Revelation What is the real meaning of 666 The Dragon With Seven Heads and Ten Horns and many more Are these delusional Read carefully the book Crime Does Not Pay Archives Volume 9 Various,2015-04-28 Our latest collection including every uncensored page from Crime Does Not Pay issues 54 to 57 is brimming with razor sharp work by artists George Tuska Fred Guardineer Dan Barry Charles Biro and others This volume also features a new foreword by crime and comics storytelling all star Max Allan Collins Road to Perdition King of the Weeds Featuring pre Code work by Tuska Biro Guardineer and others American Dream Emelda Suh,2016-08-23 American Dream presents a collection of writings that focus on a wide range of topics from love hope and family to issues such as homelessness patriotism and the process of immigrating to a new land These verses seek to both entertain and comfort you with tales of passion action and thoughtful consideration as well as vignettes drawn from everyday life I will stamp my feet and brace for impact and I will run for the hills When the volcanoes from the belly of the mountains roar with hunger I will fall back to earth and on my way down be majestically represented by the eagle Let me conquer fear and rise with the wolf for he alone has seen the world in different shades I pray for morning to come so I can see the glorious rise of the sun thus enjoying the fruitful harvest of the day Let me grow in the belly of America and be another American Dream from A Strange Land Called America The Masterpieces of Modern Drama: English and American John Alexander Pierce,1916 Mining American ,1915 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Thresherman ,1906      Crossing the Borders of Time Leslie Maitland,2013-01-08 On a pier in Marseille in 1942 with desperate refugees pressing to board one of the last ships to escape France before the Nazis choked off its ports an 18 year old German Jewish girl was pried from the arms of the Catholic Frenchman she loved and promised to marry As the Lipari carried Janine and her family to Casablanca on the first leg of a perilous journey to safety in Cuba she would read through her tears the farewell letter that Roland had slipped in her pocket Whatever the length of our separation our love will survive it because it depends on us alone I give you my vow that whatever the time we must wait you will be my wife Never forget never doubt Five years later her fierce desire to reunite with Roland first obstructed by war and then in secret by her father and brother Janine would build a new life in New York with a dynamic American husband That his obsession with Ayn Rand tormented their marriage was just one of the reasons she never ceased yearning to reclaim her lost love Investigative reporter Leslie Maitland grew up enthralled by her mother's accounts of forbidden romance and harrowing flight from the Nazis. Her book is both a journalist's vivid depiction of a world at war and a daughter's pursuit of a haunting question: what had become of the handsome Frenchman whose picture her mother continued to treasure almost fifty years after they parted? It is a tale of memory that reporting made real and a story of undying love that crosses the borders of time. Engineering and Mining Journal, 1873

The Catholic Comparative New Testament Oxford University Press, 2005. The Catholic Comparative New Testament features eight complete Catholic New Testaments translated by dedicated scholars and gathered into a single convenient volume. This edition includes both word-for-word translations of the scripture as well as thought-for-thought translations. Readers can compare verses at a glance with facing-page translations: four translations per page in a clear, easy-to-read typeface. The CCNT features four word-for-word translations: Douay-Rheims, Revised Standard Version, Catholic Bible, New Revised Standard Version, Catholic Bible, and the New American Bible. These translations follow as closely as possible the New Testament's original wording, making them perfect for close readings of the text. The Jerusalem Bible, the Good News Bible, the New Jerusalem Bible, and the Christian Community Bible represent the thought-for-thought school of Bible translation. These translations emphasize the intended meaning of the original vocabulary, adapting it to English syntax and grammar, making it easier to understand for the lay reader. The Catholic Comparative New Testament offers the most unique and informed way of reading scripture with its eight different translations. Beautifully printed on the highest quality material, the CCNT is an excellent study guide for the value.
