Why This World: A Biography of Clarice Lispector Benjamin Moser, 2009-07-01 That rare person who looked like Marlene Dietrich and wrote like Virginia Woolf Clarice

Lispector is one of the most popular but least understood of Latin American writers. Now after years of research on three continents drawing on previously unknown manuscripts and dozens of interviews Benjamin Moser demonstrates how Lispector's development as a writer was directly connected to the story of her turbulent life. Born in the nightmarish landscape of post World War I Ukraine Clarice became virtually from adolescence a person whose beauty genius and eccentricity intrigued Brazil. Why This World tells how this precocious girl through long exile abroad and difficult personal struggles matured into a great writer. It also asserts for the first time the deep roots in the Jewish mystical tradition that make her the true heir to Kafka as well as the unlikely author of perhaps the greatest spiritual autobiography of the twentieth century. From Chechnik to Recife from Naples and Berne to Washington and Rio de Janeiro Why This World strips away the mythology surrounding this extraordinary figure and shows how Clarice Lispector transformed one woman's struggles into a universally resonant art.

This fascinating new look at Pope Francis presents the personal insights of ten Jesuits many who have known him since his first days as a Jesuit and were interviewed for this book shortly after he was elected the Pope. Some were his professors some his peers and some younger Jesuits who were his students. Also interviewed for this book are non Jesuits including an Argentine senator a prominent rabbi a priest working in the slums of Buenos Aires that Bergoglio often visited. Their remarks are focused on different aspects of the man including his family background his abilities and his personality as administrator as friend as teacher as a guide etc. Some of the predominant aspects of his personality to emerge are his longstanding simplicity and authentic spirituality his concern for the individual and the poor his desire for the Church to go out to the street to meet the needs of the people. More controversial issues discussed include his dealing with the issue of Liberation Theology and his relationship with the military regime in Argentina. These interviews essentially transmit a mosaic that reveals little known insights of the pontiff's personality of his interior world his human abilities his work habits his devotions his concerns and his friendships. Thus they open a fascinating door to a better understanding of the man whom the Holy Spirit has elected to lead the Church at this time.
