Mafeking Memories:

Mafeking Memories Frederick Saunders, 1996 Saunders gives us a vivid and unique soldier's eye view of the siege the daily life the hunger the regular bombardment from long range Boer guns the forays against the Boers and the antics of Baden Powell who tried to keep up the morale of the garrison Saunders's descriptions of the countryside are graphic too revealing an artist's sensitivity His account nicely supplements others written by journalists and by prominent officials at Mafeking The editor who obtained the memoir from the Saunders family provides an introduction that places the siege in its historical context Enemy Intimacies and Strange Meetings in Writings of Conflict 1800-1918 Holly

Furneaux, 2025-04-03 Propaganda others the enemy as brutish brutal and lacking in humanity By contrast a wealth of literary and first hand writings present switches in which the enemy becomes as Wilfred Owen famously put it a strange friend This book focuses on moments of intimacy and reassessment between military enemies truces treatment of the wounded relationships with prisoners of war It is concerned with the work done by declarations of fellow feeling both to challenge and enable militarism The book explores enemy intimacies in literature philosophy and life writings to ask questions about the nature of amity enmity familiarity and otherness It ranges across British conflicts of the long nineteenth century a period in which ideas about the uniqueness of combat experience coalesced with a European effort to secure a distinctive version of so called civilized humanity The sense that soldiers of the other side bonded by experiences unavailable to civilians were just like us came into tension with views about the dissimilarity of other nations and races This book considers which enemies can become familiar and which are held as other investigating dividing lines of nation race religion and culture Enemy Intimacies and Strange Meetings asks how far these affectively powerful encounters can shift individual and wider narratives about civilisation and humanitarianism Attention to the violence that can be done by claiming and denying fellow feeling is held in tension with hope in the queer possibilities of reoriented compassion This book uncovers a rich cultural history of enemy intimacies to consider different orientations of cosmopolitanism and humanitarian fellow feeling while recognizing and explaining the ways in which full international kinship remains elusive Memories and Impressions Ford Madox Ford, 1911

Women in South African History Nomboniso Gasa, 2007 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete text of the printed volume South African Memories Sarah Wilson, 2018-04-06 Reproduction of the original South African Memories by Sarah Wilson South Africa, 1907 Washed with Sun Jeremy Foster, 2014-08-15 South Africa is recognized as a site of both political turmoil and natural beauty and yet little work has been done in connecting these defining national characteristics Washed with Sun achieves this conjunction in its multidisciplinary study of South Africa as a space at once natural and constructed Weaving together practical aesthetic and ideological analyses Jeremy Foster examines the role of landscape in forming the cultural iconographies and spatialities that shaped the imaginary geography of emerging nationhood Looking in particular at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster

discusses the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa In its innovative approach to South Africa s history Washed with Sun breaks important new ground combining the persuasive theory of cultural geography with the material specificity of landscape history
