Magdalenas Song:

No Choice But Freedom Pat Mattaini Mestern, 2006 Based on the true stories of English woman Elizabeth Bagley Morrison who tried to make a mark in Colonial America with her far reaching ideals and William Servos Hult an African slave who won his freedom and rose to prominence in the spice trade before immigrating to Canada Mestern has woven truth through her fiction s fabric creating a tale of people and principles at the founding of our nation Sex, Death, and Minuets David Yearsley, 2019-07-11 Insightful commentary on the Bach family s musical life and the culture in which the Bachs lived Important and fascinating Highly recommended Choice At one time a star in her own right as a singer Anna Magdalena 1701 60 would go on to become through her marriage to the older Johann Sebastian Bach history s most famous musical wife and mother The two musical notebooks belonging to her continue to live on beloved by millions of pianists young and old Yet the pedagogical utility of this music long associated with the sound of children practicing and mothers listening has encouraged a rosy and one sided view of Anna Magdalena as a model of German feminine domesticity Sex Death and Minuets offers the first in depth study of these notebooks reanimating Anna Magdalena as a historical subject at once pious and bawdy spirited and tragic In these pages we follow Magdalena from young and flamboyant performer to bereft and impoverished widow David Yearsley explores the notebooks entries against the backdrop of the social practices and concerns that women shared in eighteenth century Lutheran Germany What emerges is a humane portrait of a musician who embraced the sensuality of song and the uplift of the keyboard a sometimes ribald wife and oft bereaved mother who used her cherished musical notebooks for piety and play humor and devotion for living and for dying Fascinating Laurence Dreyfus University of Oxford Yearsley s account will doubtless stand as the definitive account of the Bachin and her notebooks for years to come Bettina Varwig University of Cambridge A warm insightful and compelling portrait Matthew Dirst University of Houston Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn, 2019 In Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn explores a question that is central to the interface of religious studies and Native American and indigenous studies What have Native peoples made of Christianity By focusing on the annual pilgrimage of the Tohono O odham to Magdalena in Sonora Mexico Schermerhorn examines how these indigenous people of southern Arizona have made Christianity their own This walk serves as the entry point for larger questions about what the Tohono O odham have made of Christianity With scholarly rigor and passionate empathy Schermerhorn offers a deep understanding of Tohono O odham Christian traditions as practiced in everyday life and in the words of the O odham themselves The author s rich ethnographic description and analyses are also drawn from his experiences accompanying a group of O odham walkers on their pilgrimage to Saint Francis in Magdalena For many years scholars have agreed that the journey to Magdalena is the largest and most significant event in the annual cycle of Tohono O odham Christianity Never before however has it been the subject of sustained scholarly inquiry Walking to Magdalena offers insight into religious life and expressive culture relying on extensive field study videotaped and transcribed oral histories of the Oodham and archival research The book illuminates indigenous theories of personhood and place in the everyday life narratives songs and material culture of the Tohono Oodham

Preston,2022-10-31 It started on the Magdalena River the 1960s when life had been simple and reassuring A river and pueblos ready to absorb the gospel message her Christian missionary family would bring A river where Ellie suddenly changed that birthday when two books arrived Uncle Tom's Cabin about American slavery and The Diary of a Young Girl by Anne Frank with its Nazi overlay Books full of sorrow and evil that she'd never heard of so different to past tales of romance and happy endings Now it became a painful time when life was no longer simple her parents whose Bible message had always seemed purposeful and right and her mentor the ex priest with secrets of his own teaching her compassion and mercy Also Aunt Lizzie an irreverent model of womanhood and freedom for Ellie to observe And high on the admiration scale was Dr Britten that wonderful man living a wealthy secluded life behind the river This is a coming of age story An honest unflinching

look at Ellie young and lonely trying to hold onto innocence while at the same time struggling to define her own belief system as events begin to crash down around her Who can she trust and is she strong enough to succeed and run with that freedom she optimistically craves
