

Maggie May's Diary

Thomas E. Coughlin

Margaret Keogh-Olson, an attractive CPA, is searching for a high school photo to send to her high school class reunion, when she discovers the diary she wrote at age fifteen. The young Maggie May Keogh had just discovered boys—one that got her pregnant and one that loved her. Eighteen years later, her marriage on the rocks and her daughter about to graduate from high school, Maggie May's diary brings back memories, an agonizing discovery and a question: What has happened to Brian Kelly, who professed his love so many years ago? Margaret begins her search for love and new awareness of who she is and what she values in this memorable romance played out in the affluent suburbs of New Hampshire and the beach communities of Maine.

"Who hasn't wondered what has happened to high school sweethearts? Coughlin knows that every class has its Maggie May."
