

ART IDEAS HISTORY

This series of fourteen volumes is a vast inquiry into the cultural background of the Western world. Its aim is threefold: to bring art and history into relation with the movement of ideas and the structure of society; to show the vital connection between creative art and the sensibility and spirit of each age; to provide a better understanding of the artist's work by tracing the social, literary and philosophical sources of his inspiration. From this inquiry emerges a comprehensive picture of the creative achievements of each period of history. Text and illustrations are closely associated in a clear and original presentation designed to bring out the leading themes and preoccupations of each age, and the underlying connections between art, ideas and history.
