

Nelson Grammar

Nelson Grammar provides a step-by-step course for the teaching and learning of essential grammar concepts. The course carefully builds children's confidence in applying grammatical knowledge and understanding to their everyday work. Designed with ease of use in mind, the course provides three levels of differentiation as well as assessment materials to help ensure that all children are on track.

The course provides:

- Differentiated materials for plenty of practice, extension and reinforcement
- A clear progression and full curriculum coverage
- Support for assessing children's knowledge and understanding in preparation for national tests
