What the Dog Knows Cat Warren,2013-10-01 A firsthand exploration of the extraordinary abilities and surprising sometimes life saving talents of working dogs pups who can sniff out drugs find explosives even locate the dead as told through the experiences of a journalist and her intrepid canine companion which The New York Times calls a fascinating deeply reported journey into the amazing things dogs can do with their noses There are thousands of working dogs all over the US and beyond with incredible abilities they can find missing people detect drugs and bombs pinpoint unmarked graves of Civil War soldiers or even find drowning victims more than two hundred feet below the surface of a lake These abilities may seem magical or mysterious but author Cat Warren shows the science the rigorous training and the skilled handling that underlie these creatures amazing abilities Cat Warren is a university professor and journalist who had tried everything she could think of to harness her dog Solo's boundless energy and enthusiasm until a behavior coach suggested she try training him to be a working dog What started out as a hobby soon became a calling as Warren was introduced to the hidden universe of dogs who do this essential work and the handlers who train them Her dog Solo has a fine nose and knows how to use it but he's only one of many

Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D. Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world
