From the Slopes of Mount Kenya Mary T. Wanjiku, 2012-05-17 I was born and brought up in Kenya during the struggle for independence from the colonial rule This book is about the trials and tribulations that took place during those difficult years It is also about the cultural changes that the African families endured in that period but where everyone looked out for each other My family moved away from the village into the new emerging cosmopolitan towns and a new way of life where there was the merging of cultures from all over the world This move meant losing some of their cultural identity process but on a positive note led to their embracing in the activities found in the brave new world My story is a personal journey that started with humble beginnings on the slopes of Mount Kenya with the euphoria and excitement that accompanied the freedom from the British rule It is about growing up during the transitional years of post colonial Kenya and taking advantage of the many opportunities and challenges of a new nation and doing whatever was necessary to enable me to reach my goals and to find my identity and role in the new found freedom and independence

African Women Legends and the Spirituality of Resistance Musa W. Dube, Telesia K. Musili, Sylvia Owusu-Ansah, 2024-03-11 This volume focuses on African indigenous women legends and their potential to serve as midwives for gender empowerment and for contributing towards African feminist theories. It considers the intersection of gender and spirituality in subverting patriarchy, colonialism, anthropocentrism and capitalism as well as elevating African women to the social space of speaking as empowered subjects with public influence. The chapters examine historical, cultural and religious African women legends who became champions of liberation and their approach to social justice. The authors suggest that their stories of resistance hold great potential for building justice-loving Earth Communities. This book will be of interest to scholars of religion, gender studies, indigenous studies, African studies, African indigenous knowledges, postcolonial studies among others.

Re-Think Nigel May Barlow, 2006-07-06 What does it take to re-think anything in your life? Sometimes nothing short of turning your whole world upside down. Slow down your thinking for a moment. What is your brain doing? Almost certainly trying to come up with a single right answer because then you can stop thinking about the problem. All too often we are not really thinking but sleepwalking through life. Fresh angles on familiar problems elude us. Re-thinking is the opposite: it means seeing better or different solutions. In other words, thinking as unusual. Rethink shows you why and how. What if today you were to Buy a new newspaper. Take a different route home. Say yes to everything your partner asks. Invent new rituals for your family. Surround yourself with beauty. Try a first take at the creative fantasy: sleeping in the attic of your mind. Find a new hero. Discover more about your upbringing. Act as if anything were possible rather than yes-butting the new. You'd be a re-thinker. Why not? There's always a better or different solution to the way you lead your personal or professional life. Rethink will help you to stop living on autopilot and reawaken your sense of wonder, curiosity and creativity.

Mukami Kimathi: Mau Mau Woman Freedom Fighter Nderitu, Wairimu, 2019-07-02 Mukami Kimathi, Mau Mau Woman Freedom Fighter is the story of the brave wife of one of Kenya's foremost freedom fighters, Field Marshal Dedan Kimathi. Waciri Kimathi led the Mau Mau war in Kenya's independence struggle against the British colonialists. Mukami's role as a daughter, wife, mother, freedom fighter and leader is varied and very complex. Her story spans pre and post-independent Kenya. Her experiences provide an important complement to existing written literature on Kenya's history. In 2003, the Mwai Kibaki Government lifted the ban put in place by the British colonialists, declaring the Mau Mau as terrorists and recognising Mukami Kimathi and other freedom fighters as national heroes and heroines celebrated on 20th October as Mashujaa Day. This book gives an insight into the role of women freedom fighters and the struggles they faced both during and after the war. It is an incredible story of immense self-sacrifice and love for Kenya. Mukami provides the lens to see the wider picture of women in the independence struggle, the neglect and betrayal of wives of Mau Mau fighters in particular and women in general in Kenya's making. Beyond her role in the independence struggle, Mukami's story has many historical highlights such as time shared with K mathi meeting Nelson Mandela and her fruitful and strong relationship with Kenya s human rights movement
