Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven, 2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions Homeground Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2024-04-11

Purifying Empire Deana Heath,2010-06-03 Purifying Empire explores the material cultural and moral fragmentation of the boundaries of imperial and colonial rule in the British Empire in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It charts how a particular bio political project namely the drive to regulate the obscene in late nineteenth century Britain was transformed from a national into a global and imperial venture and then re localized in two different colonial contexts India and Australia to serve decidedly different ends While a considerable body of work has demonstrated both the role of empire in shaping moral regulatory projects in Britain and their adaptation transformation and at times rejection in colonial contexts this book illustrates that it is in fact only through a comparative and transnational framework that it is possible to elucidate both the temporalist nature of colonialism and the political racial and moral contradictions that sustained imperial and colonial regimes

Global Rhetorics of Science Lynda C. Olman,2023-09-01 With this volume the field of rhetoric of science joins its sister disciplines in history and philosophy in challenging the dominance of Euro American science as a global epistemology The discipline of rhetoric understands world making and community building as interdependent activities that is if we practice science differently we do politics differently and vice versa This wider aperture seems crucial at a time when we are confronted with the limitations of Euro American science and politics in managing global risks such as pandemics and climate change particularly in our most vulnerable communities The contributors to this volume draw on their familiarity with a wide range of global scientific traditions from Australian Aboriginal ecology to West African medicine to Polynesian navigation science to suggest possibilities for reconfiguring the relationship between science and politics to better manage global risks These possibilities should not only inspire scholars in rhetoric and technical communication but should also introduce readers from science and technology studies to some useful new approaches to the problem of decolonizing scenes of scientific practice around the world History of the Minnesota Horticultural Society...,1899 Abstracts of Earthquake Reports for California and Western Nevada ,1940 Philosophy in Ireland Susan Gottlöber,2019-08-29 This volume presents an overview of various aspects of the quite diverse philosophical developments that have taken place in Ireland both past and present With contributions by some of the leading thinkers in their field this book is based although not exclusively so on papers given at a conference held at Maynooth University Ireland in 2012 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Irish Philosophical Society Rather than treating philosophy in Ireland in a systematic and comprehensive way the contributions give the reader a glimpse of the state of philosophy in Ireland today They show that from the beginning and throughout the centuries the philosophical tradition in Ireland has been characterised by dialogue This dialogical aspect of Irish philosophising remains alive today The book demonstrates how this engagement encompasses the past as interlocutor as well as interactions with the philosophical debates that take place outside of Ireland both on the continent and within the Anglo American tradition The volume puts forward a strong argument that the future of philosophy in Ireland should not move towards an ever greater specialisation thereby resulting in the isolation and impoverishment of individual philosophical traditions Rather it argues that the different traditions should remain and should engage in dialogue with each other with their philosophical and intellectual past and stay steadfastly connected with the society around them The Small Community, Foundation of Democratic Life Arthur Ernest Morgan,2013-01-14 No Bottom Mike Newell,2008 Cultural Writing NO BOTTOM informally tracks the life and letters of American icon and world revered author Barry Lopez whose literature of hope reminds readers the way we take care of ourselves is by taking care of each other This nonfiction book is a primer for newcomers to Lopez s work a haven for aficionados and a baedeker for academicians It includes an original interview and a provocative inquiry into Barry Lopez s six short story books These portals provide grounding for new arrivals to Lopez s insatiable Trickster wit and yield reader friendly end notes for academicians This book shows once again why many of us think of Barry Lopez as a national treasure Lewis Hyde author of The Gift and Trickster Makes This World
