Persian Gardens And Garden Pavilions:

Persian Gardens and Garden Pavilions Donald Newton Wilber, 1979 This study traces the history of gardens in Iran from the earliest remains of the Timurid period to those of the Qajar dynasty of the nineteenth century Illustrations from early travel books and paintings show the original conditions of now ruined gardens Persian Gardens and Pavilions Mohammad Gharipour, 2013-04-02 From Timur's tent in Samarqand to Shah Abbas's palace in Isfahan and Humayun's tomb in Delhi the pavilion has been an integral part of Persianate gardens since its earliest appearance at the Achaemenid garden in Pasargadae in the sixth century BC Here Mohammad Gharipour places both the garden and the pavilion within their historical literary and artistic contexts emphasizing the importance of the pavilion which has hitherto been overlooked in the study of Iranian historical architecture Starting with an examination of the depictions and representations of gardens in religious texts Gharipour analyses the how the idea of the garden developed from the model of pre Islamic gardens in Achaemenid and Sassanian Persia to its mentions in the Zoroastrian text of Aban Yasht and on to its central role as paradise in the Qur'an Continuing on with an exploration of gardens and pavilions in Persian poetry Gharipour offers in depth analysis of their literal and metaphorical values It is in the poetry of major Persian poets such as Ferdowsi Naser Khosrow Sa di Rumi and Hafez that Gharipour finds that whilst gardens are praised for their spiritual values they also contain significant symbolic worth in terms of temporal wealth and power Persian Gardens and Pavilions then goes on to examine the garden and the pavilion as reflected in Persian miniature painting sculpture and carpets as well as accounts of travelers to Persia With masters such as Bizhad representing daily life as well as the more mystical prose and poetry in for example Sa di's Bustan The Orchard and Golestan The Rose Garden the garden and the pavilion can be seen to have crucial semiotic significances and cultural meanings But in addition to this they also point to historical patterns of patronage and ownership which were of central importance in the diplomatic and social life of the royal courts of Persia Gharipour thereby highlights the metaphorical spiritual symbolic and religious aspects of gardens as well as their more materialistic and economic functions This book reaches back through Persia's rich history to explore the material and psychological relationships between human beings pavilions and gardens and will be a valuable resource for Art History Architecture and Iranian Studies Persian Gardens & Garden Pavilions Donald N. Wilber, 1994-06-15 This Persian gardening book showcases classic gardens and pavilions and presents gardening advice for the aspiring amateur landscaper looking to add an Eastern flair to his or her yard The garden has always had a special meaning for Persian Iran The Persian garden with its flowing pools fountains waterways rows of tall trees rich arrays of fruit trees and flowers and cool pavilions has represented an image of paradise Persian Gardens Garden Pavilions is both a comprehensive survey and an appreciation of this Persian tradition of gardens and garden pavilions The text traces the historical development of Persian gardens describes their basic features presents existing examples and discusses the literature and tradition behind them The 119 illustrations include detailed plans and photographs of surviving gardens and their pavilions made on the spot as well as a comprehensive collection of paintings lithographs and drawings of the nineteenth century executed both by Persian artists and by European travelers and emissaries of the period The author points out the gardeners who read this book should come across many details and ideas that can be incorporated into their own kinds of gardens The Gardens of Persia Penelope Hobhouse,2004 Looks at the evolution of Persian gardens from ancient times to the present day and their impact on modern garden design Islamic Gardens and Landscapes D. Fairchild Ruggles,2011-12-30 Western admirers have long seen the Islamic garden as an earthly reflection of the paradise said to await the faithful However such simplification Ruggles contends denies the sophistication and diversity of the art form Islamic Gardens and Landscapes immerses the reader in the world of the architects of the great gardens of the Islamic world from medieval Morocco to contemporary India Just as Islamic culture is historically dense sophisticated and complex so too is the history of its built landscapes Islamic gardens began from the practical need to organize the surrounding space of human civilization tame nature enhance the earth's yield and create a legible map on which to distribute natural resources Ruggles follows the evolution of these early farming efforts to their aristocratic apex in famous formal gardens of the Alhambra in Spain and the Taj Mahal in Agra Whether in a humble city home or a royal courtyard the garden has several defining characteristics which Ruggles discusses Most notable is an enclosed space divided into four equal parts surrounding a central design element The traditional Islamic garden is inwardly focused usually surrounded by buildings or in the form of a courtyard Water provides a counterpoint to the portioned green sections Ranging across poetry court documents agronomy manuals and early garden representations and richly illustrated with pictures and site plans Islamic Gardens and Landscapes is a book of impressive scope sure to interest scholars and enthusiasts alike

Islamic Art and Beyond is the third in a set of four volumes of studies on Islamic art by Oleg Grabar Between them they bring together more than eighty articles studies and essays work spanning half a century by a master of the field Each volume takes a particular section of the topic the three other volumes being entitled Early Islamic Art 650 1100 Islamic Visual Culture 1100 1800 and Jerusalem Reflecting the many incidents of a long academic life they illustrate one scholar s attempt at making order and sense of 1400 years of artistic growth They deal with architecture painting objects iconography theories of art aesthetics and ornament and they seek to integrate our knowledge of Islamic art with Islamic culture and history as well as with the global concerns of the History of Art In addition to the articles selected each volume contains an introduction which describes often in highly personal ways the context in which Grabar s scholarship developed and the people who directed and mentored his efforts The articles in the present volume illustrate how the author s study of Islamic art led him in two directions for a further understanding of the arts One is how to define Islamic art and what impulses provided it with its own peculiar forms and dynamics of growth Was it a faith or a combination of social historical and cultural events And how has Islamic art impacted on the contemporary arts of the Islamic world The other issue is that of the meanings to be given to forms like domes so characteristic of Islamic art or to terms like symbol signs or aesthetic values in the arts especially when one considers the contemporary world The Islamic examples allow for the development of new intellectual positions for the history and criticism of the arts everywhere examining contemporary experiences of both insiders and outsiders asking how modern scholarship defines the distinctive features of the age While sometimes viewed as a period of decline from the high points of classical Persian literature and the visual arts of preceding centuries the chapters of this book demonstrate that the Safavid era was nevertheless a period of great literary and artistic activity in the realms of both secular and theological endeavour With the establishment of comparable polities across western southern and central Asia at broadly the same time the book explores some of the literary and political interactions with Iran s Ottoman Mughal and Uzbek neighbours As the volume and frequency of European merchants and diplomats visiting Safavid Persia increased especially in the seventeenth century and as more Iranians recorded their own travel experiences to surrounding Muslim lands the Safavid period is the first in which we can document and explore the contours of Iran s place in an expanding world and gain insights into how Iranians saw themselves and others saw them
