Deconstruction and the Postcolonial Michael Syrotinski, 2007-09-01 As postcolonial studies shifts to a more comparative approach one of the most intriguing developments has been within the Francophone world A number of genealogical lines of influence are now being drawn connecting the work of the three figures most associated with the emergence of postcolonial theory Homi Bhabha Edward Said and Gayatri Spivak to an earlier generation of French predominantly poststructuralist theorists Within this emerging narrative of intellectual influences the importance of the thought of Jacques Derrida and the status of deconstruction generally has been acknowledged but has not until now been adequately accounted for In Deconstruction and the Postcolonial Michael Syrotinski teases out the underlying conceptual tensions and theoretical stakes of what he terms a deconstructive postcolonialism and argues that postcolonial studies stands to gain ground in terms of its political forcefulness and philosophical rigour by turning back to and not away from deconstruction

Singular Performances Michael Syrotinski, 2002 Francophone African writing is often concerned with questions of subjectivity and narrative agency and it is this focus Michael Syrotinski takes as his point of departure in Singular Performances Using the work of V Y Mudimbe as a major theoretical reference Syrotinski sets up a number of original dialogues between francophone African literature African philosophy literary theory postcolonial studies cinema cultural studies and history to arrive at the notion of a performative reinscription of subjectivity Singular Performances covers a wide range of francophone African writers each of whom is read within a broader theoretical context related to African subjectivity Mudimbe and the philosophical subject Aoua K ita and autobiography Bernard Dadi and ethnographic irony Ousmane Sembene and Tierno Mon nembo and the cinematic imagination V ronique Tadjou and Werewere Liking and the female writing subject and Sony Labou Tansi and the spectral subject In this skillful interdisciplinary weaving together of contemporary theory and literature the focus on the francophone African subject allows for a richer appreciation of the texture and rhetoric of the language of the texts themselves What emerges from this study is the subject understood not as a single homogenized entity but as a plural celebration of singular francophone African subjectivities

African Oral Literature Howard James Jordan,2024-04-10 African Oral Literature Its Philosophical Thoughts Conveyed in Yoruba Society explores the ways that the Yoruba people of Nigeria have made remarkable contributions to the world s civilization Yoruba philosophical religious tenets artistic tenets ideas and icons have helped to transform religious beliefs and practices and the arts When considering the study of Yoruba oral traditions one learns how its philosophical concepts are the bases for an interpretation of what constitutes their aesthetic performance in art forms This book introduces distinguished Yoruba cultural historians documenting the full spectrum which extends beyond the visual art form Through oral tradition the effigy with its ako naturalism is not judged for its photographic realism but for its efficacy within the context of the ako traditional ceremony which is intended to make the end of this life and the beginning of the next one honorable and dignifying for one s parents where good will is needed by those still on earth About the Author Howard James Jordan was born in Philadelphia Pennsylvania in 1948 He is a lifetime member of the following associations The Buffalo Soldiers 24th Infantry Regiment of New Jersey The Buffalo Soldiers 9th Disabled American Veterans DVA and Veterans of Foreign Wars Dept of New Jersey Howard s hobbies include writing reading history dancing roller skating horseback riding traveling wood carving and painting He also taught art in Nigeria Secondary Schools was a research assistant at Nigerian University and taught special education in Philadelphia Public Schools Nationalism and Cultural Practice in the Postcolonial World Neil Lazarus,1999-05-20 In this wide ranging study Neil Lazarus explores the subject of cultural practice in the modern world system The book contains individual chapters on a range of topics from modernity globalization and the West and nationalism and decolonization to cricket and popular consciousness in the English speaking Caribbean Lazarus analyses social movements ideas and cultural practices that have migrated from the First world to the Third world over the course of the twentieth century Nationalism and Cultural Practice in the Postcolonial World offers an enormously erudite reading of culture and society in today s world and includes extended discussion of the work of such influential writers critics and activists as Frantz Fanon C L R James Edward Said Gayatri Spivak Samir Amin Raymond Williams Paul Gilroy and Partha Chatterjee This book is a politically focused materialist intervention into postcolonial and cultural studies and constitutes a major reappraisal of the debates on politics and culture in these fields Does the Village Still Raise the Child? Beth Blue Swadener,2000-09-22 Examining the degree to which Kenyan children are still communally raised this book presents findings from a national collaborative study considering the impacts of rapid social economic and cultural change on child rearing and early education in Kenya The narratives of over 460 parents grandparents preschool teachers children and community leaders provide unique insights on the impacts of neo colonial policies development practices and national austerity measures on everyday lives of families A unique aspect of this book is that it decolonizes research through sustained collaboration on all aspects of the study from design and interview protocol development to data collection and analysis through dissemination This book becomes then an invaluable model for how to do thoughtful collaborative comparative research Faith, Morality and Being Irish Philip Leroy Kilbride,Noel J. J. Farley,2007 In the minds of many the nineteenth century Irish famine seemed to create an environment that later produced an avoidance of marriage drunkenness violence and mental illness If ever predominant in Irish cultural behavior those moments have passed As a result Professors Philip L Kilbride and Noel J J Farley outline the positive contributions the contemporary Irish make to the world around them particularly Africa From this generosity emerges as a major Irish cultural virtue The authors trace it from the Celtic period showing how it became a central concern of Roman Catholics from the nineteenth century to today Professors Kilbride and Farley use ethnographic techniques and narrative perspective to focus on the life of an Irish entrepreneur and philanthropist who has lived in Africa since 1970 They also illuminate the missionary work in Kenya of an Irish Jesuit and others of Irish heritage there These accounts coupled with other narratives and historical evidence detail the prevalence and practice of Irish generosity to further document what they conclude is an Irish caring tradition This volume will be of interest to a wide audience including anthropologists economists historians philosophers political scientists sociologists theologians and Irish and African studies programs It is accessible to undergraduate and graduate students as a supplemental reading within the varieties of fields aforementioned Book jacket College For Sale Wesley

Shumar,2013-10-23 This text provides a framework for understanding higher education in the US and other western countries since the 1970s whereby the logic of the market place has increasingly come to dominate all arenas and in context the education system The author calls this process commodification and he describes the transformation of universities in the US and elsewhere as they attempt to accomodate the enforced changes on their academic lives and those of their students The book chronicles changes with the increasing focus on career and the movement towards the instrumental functions of education the financial crisis and the development of a more corporate approach to education of consumption that produce universities heavy with expensive well equipped and powerful administrations and decreasing numbers of ever more disenfranchised faculty Dynamics of Identification and Conflict Markus Virgil Hoehne,Echi Christina Gabbert,John R. Eidson,2025-03-01 Dealing with the dynamics of identification and conflict this book uses theoretical orientations ranging from political ecology to rational choice theory interpretive approaches Marxism and multiscalar analysis Case studies set in Africa Europe and Central Asia are grouped in three sections devoted to pastoralism identity and migration What connects all of these anthropological explorations is a close focus on processes of identification and conflict at the level of particular actors in relation to the behaviour of large aggregates of people and to systemic conditions Frontiers in Regional Development Y. Gradus,Harvey Lithwick,1996 In fifteen insightful new essays noted scholars in geography economics and public policy provide a comparative examination of the problems and prospects for development in frontier areas Blending theory with case studies the essays challenge the widely held notion that peripheral areas are marginal or backward
