presents an engaging selection of highlights and introduces readers to the richness and diversity of the Yale University Art Gallery's holdings of American art. An introductory essay outlines pivotal moments in the three hundred year history of collecting, exhibiting and teaching with American art at Yale and commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Friends of American Arts at Yale whose support continues to ensure the excellence of the collection. The more than one hundred object entries that follow create a narrative that charts the multiplicity of experiences and accomplishments of artists and artisans living and working in North America from the earliest days of European settlement to the present. Among the catalogued objects are works by some of the best known names in American art as well as recent acquisitions and masterpieces that represent diverse American identities. A dazzling range of media is displayed including paintings and sculpture, medals, prints and drawings, photographs, jewelry, furniture and decorative arts. Each object is illustrated with a full page image and is accompanied by a one page discussion that focuses on its contribution to the history of American art. Distributed for the Yale University Art Gallery A New Latin Dictionary Charlton Thomas Lewis, Charles Short, 1907

Harpers' Latin Dictionary Charlton Thomas Lewis, 1879 Contributions from the Museum of the American Indian, Heye Foundation Edwin Kenneth Burnett, 1944 Antiquarian Book Review, 2003 Picasso Jeffrey S. Weiss, Valerie J. Fletcher, Kathryn A. Tuma, Pablo Picasso, National Gallery of Art (U.S.), 2003. Between spring and winter 1909 Picasso executed more than sixty portraits of his companion Fernande Olivier. These works produced in a variety of formats and mediums exhibit a range of artistic approaches dedicated to a single subject that stands out in the history of portraiture. Even more significant, this series of works coincided with the invention of Cubism. Published to accompany a major exhibition originating at the National Gallery of Art, Washington, this richly illustrated volume illuminates Picasso's radical reformulation of human physiognomy. Containing eighty-two color illustrations and sixty-eight duotones, the catalogue explores the Fernande portraits and related works as a single oeuvre culminating in the magnificent Head of a Woman. Fernande, one of Picasso's rare pre-1912 excursions into sculpture. By so doing, it allows us to examine Picasso's process in an unprecedented fashion. What emerges is a new picture of the artist pursuing his subject with obsessive repetition and struggling to resolve artistic problems during a time of crisis in his work. Also included are previously unpublished studio photographs that offer further insight into the conceptual nature of the artist's process. The text narrates the internal development of the Fernande portrait series, situates it within the broader history of representation and considers the powerful impact of Cézanne on Picasso's work during this period. Seizing a single extended moment in the early history of Cubism, this catalogue reveals Cubism's great achievement: its startling invention, its remarkable expressive power and its profound formal and psychological implications for modern art. EXHIBITION SCHEDULE National Gallery of Art, Washington, October 1, 2003 - January 18, 2004; Nasher Sculpture Garden, Dallas, February 15 - May 9, 2004. Stamp News, 1926 American Breeder, 1918 Picturesque and Sublime Tim Barringer, T.
