Invested Indifference Kara Granzow, 2020-06-15 In 2004 Amnesty International characterized Canadian society as indifferent to high rates of violence against Indigenous women and girls When the Canadian government took another twelve years to launch a national inquiry that indictment seemed true Invested Indifference offers a divergent perspective by examining practices during three different periods in the place we now call Edmonton juxtaposing early settler texts documents concerning the former Charles Camsell Indian Hospital and contemporary online police materials Kara Granzow reaches a startling conclusion that what we see as societal indifference doesn't come from an absence of feeling but from a deep rooted and affective investment in framing specific lives as disposable Granzow demonstrates that through mechanisms such as the law medicine and control of land and space violence against Indigenous peoples has become symbolically and politically ensconced in the social construction of Canadian nationhood

The Beaver Hills Country Graham MacDonald, 2009 This book explores a relatively small but interesting and anomalous region of Alberta between the North Saskatchewan and the Battle Rivers Ecological themes such as climatic cycles ground water availability vegetation succession and the response of wildlife and the impact of fires shape the possibilities and provide the challenges to those who have called the region home or used its varied resources Indians Metis and European immigrants
