Battle of Flodden 1513 John Sadler,Rosie Serdiville,2011-11-30 The Battle of Flodden in 1513 was the largest battle ever to take place between England and Scotland James IV himself led an army of 30 000 men over the border into England ostensibly in revenge for the murder of a Scotsman but in reality to assist their ally the French by diverting the forces of Henry VIII Yet the Scots were hampered by old fashioned weapons and tactics whereas the English deployed more accurate artillery and their vaunted longbowmen When King James IV was killed while leading a charge and many of their officers died the Scots were left in disarray and the English victory was decisive As the first new history of the battle in a decade this authoritative and eye opening account marks the 500th anniversary and brings our knowledge of the conflict up to date Expert knowledge and detailed maps look at the key events the 1135 campaign and the minor battles of Millfield and Norham and a full profile of the respective forces and deployments and convey the battle s course concisely and clearly A key read for those interested in military history or the period in general The Book of Scottish Ballads Alexander Whitelaw,1845

murdering an English soldier however Laurie offers herself as a hostage until the accused is found And to preserve Laurie's reputation while in captivity she agrees to a handfast wedding to the devastatingly handsome yet equally reluctant groom Sir Hugh Graham
