Highland, Lowland and Island Roger Legg, 2016-02-04 This book is a record of three of Roger's long distance walks in Scotland The first of these was from Cape Wrath to Knoydart a route said by many to have the finest coastline in Britain The second was in South West Scotland from the Rhinns of Galloway to Iona a place of pilgrimage for centuries The third expedition was through the Outer Hebrides anyone who has studied the map of Britain cannot have failed to have been attracted to the string of islands that constitute the Western Isles They lie like a defensive barrier for the north Scottish mainland against the mighty waves of the Atlantic Ocean From the lone shieling of the island Mountains divide us and the waste of seas Yet still the blood is strong the heart is Highland And we in dreams behold the Hebrides Canadian Boat Song

Another Shore Roger Legg, 2013 Ever since Boy Scout days Roger Legg has obtained great pleasure from long distance walking On the whole he does not like following footpath routes designated by Acts of Parliament nor following books of instructions on how to get from A to B proceed for one mile turn left at the farm gate be careful of the marsh at the bottom of hill It all sounds a bit like joining the army and often fails to get the walker off the beaten track Rather he prefers to plan his own route to use map and compass This book is a record of six journeys which he made in the British Isles during the years 1980 to 1991 He hopes the reader will enjoy his adventures as that great walker George Borrow said many years ago these British Islands where more strange things are every day occurring whether in road or street house or dingle
