Screening the Stage Steven Neale, 2017-10-05 Introduced by a comprehensive account of the factors governing the adaptation of stage plays and musicals in Hollywood from the early 1910s to the mid to late 1950s Screening the Stage consists of a series of chapter length studies of feature length films the plays and musicals on which they were based and their remakes where pertinent Founded on an awareness of evolving technologies and industrial practices rather than the tenets of adaptation theory particular attention is paid to the evolving practices of Hollywood as well as to the purport and structure of the plays and stage musicals on which the film versions were based Each play or musical is contextualized and summarized in detail and each film is analyzed so as to pinpoint the ways in which they articulate modify or rework the former Examples range from dramas comedies melodramas musicals operettas thrillers westerns and war film and include The Squaw Man The Poor Little Rich Girl The Merry Widow 7th Heaven The Cocoanuts Waterloo Bridge Stage Door I Remember Mama The Pirate Dial M for Murder and Attack Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.

Copyright Office, 1952 James Edwards Pamala S. Deane, 2014-10-01 One of Hollywood's most heralded postwar African American movie stars James Edwards catapulted to stardom following his breakout role in Stanley Kramer's Home of the Brave In his groundbreaking performance as a U S soldier experiencing racial prejudice during combat in the South Pacific Edwards proved that African American actors could handle serious film roles Edwards performed on radio television and theatre and appeared in two dozen or more films including Stanley Kubrick's breakthrough indie The Killing John Frankenheimer's The Manchurian Candidate and Franklin J Schaffner's Patton This book tells the story of Edwards life and career describing his unlikely climb to fame following a serious wartime injury and detailing how this native of Muncie Indiana paved the way for the careers of Sidney Poitier Harry Belafonte and other African American stars to follow C. S. Lewis -- A Life Alister McGrath, 2013-02-18 ECPA 2014 Christian Book Award Winner Non Fiction Fifty years after his death C S Lewis continues to inspire and fascinate millions His legacy remains varied and vast He was a towering intellectual figure a popular fiction author who inspired a global movie franchise around the world of Narnia and an atheist turned Christian thinker In C S Lewis A Life Alister McGrath prolific author and respected professor at King's College of London paints a definitive portrait of the life of C S Lewis After thoroughly examining recently published Lewis correspondence Alister challenges some of the previously held beliefs about the exact timing of Lewis's shift from atheism to theism and then to Christianity He paints a portrait of an eccentric thinker who became an inspiring though reluctant prophet for our times You won't want to miss this fascinating portrait of a creative genius who inspired generations Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage Margaret J.-M. Sönmez, Maia Wellington Gahtan, Nadia Cannata, 2019-12-09

Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage presents essays by practitioners based in language museums around the world Describing their history mission and modes of display contributors demonstrate the important role intangible heritage can and should play in the museum Arguing that languages are among our most precious forms of cultural heritage the book also demonstrates that they are at risk of neglect and of endangerment from globalisation and linguistic imperialism Including case studies from across Europe North America Africa and Asia this book documents the vital work being done by museums to help preserve languages and make them objects of broad public interest Divided into three sections contributions to the book focus on one of three types of museums museums of individual languages museums of language groups both geographic and structural and museums of writing The volume presents practical information alongside theoretical discussions and state of the art commentaries concerning the representation of languages and their cultural nature Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage is the first volume to address the subject of language museums and as such should be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of museum and cultural heritage studies applied linguistics anthropology tourism and public education

The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries
