Chateau, José Moure, 2025-10-01 We live in an era of screens No longer just the place where we view movies or watch TV at night screens are now ubiquitous the source of the majority of information we consume daily and a crucial component of our basic interactions with colleagues friends and family This transformation has happened almost without us realizing it and certainly without the full theoretical and intellectual analysis it deserves Screens brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines to analyse the growing presence and place of screens in our lives today They tackle such topics as the archaeology of screens film and media theories about our interactions with them their use in contemporary art and the new avenues they open up for showing films and other media in non traditional venues The Theoretical Foundations of Criminology Jayne

Mooney, 2019-12-06 To confront the challenges criminologists face today and to satisfactorily critique the theories on which criminology is founded we need to learn from the past To do this we must give context to both theorist and theory Written from a critical perspective this book brings criminological theory to life It presents the core theories of criminology as historical and cultural products and theorists as producers of culture located in particular places writing in specific historical periods and situated in precise intellectual networks and philosophical controversies This book illustrates that theory does not arise out of the blue and highlights the importance of understanding how and why ideas emerge at certain points in time why they gained currency and the influence that they have had It follows the trajectory of criminology from pre Enlightenment society through to the present day and the proliferation of criminological thinking It explores Setting the Stage for the Emergence of Criminology Classicist Criminology The Search for Justice Equality and the Rational Man The Positivist Revolution Physiognomy Phrenology and the Science of Othering Chicago School of Sociology An Explosion of Ideas Developing a Sociological Criminology Durkheim Du Bois Merton and Tannenbaum Feminism Redressing the Gender Imbalance Confronting the Establishment The Emergence of Critical Criminology From Theoretical Innovations to Political Engagement The Theoretical Foundations of Criminology provides an invaluable contribution to the growing conversation about criminology s origin story and the level that this is grounded in the idiosyncrasies of the North Atlantic world and its historical development This book will be invaluable reading to students and academics engaged in studies of criminology and criminal justice Japan on Display Morris Low, 2006-09-27 Sixty years on from the end of the Pacific War Japan on Display examines representations of the Meiji emperor Mutsuhito 1852 1912 and his grandson the Showa emperor Hirohito who was regarded as a symbol of the nation in both war and peacetime Much of this representation was aided by the phenomenon of photography The introduction and development of photography in the nineteenth century coincided with the need to make Hirohito s grandfather the young Meiji Emperor more visible Photo books and albums became a popular format for presenting seemingly objective images of the monarch reminding the Japanese of their proximity to the Emperor and the imperial family In the twentieth century these national albums provided a visual record of wars fought in the name of the Emperor while also documenting the reconstruction of Tokyo scientific expeditions and imperial tours Drawing on archival documents photographs and sources in both Japanese and English this book throws new light on the history of twentieth century Japan and the central role of Hirohito With Japan s defeat in the Pacific War the Emperor was transformed from wartime leader to peace loving scientist Japan on Display seeks to understand this reinvention of a more human Emperor and the role that photography played in the process Chinese Revolutionary Cinema Jessica Ka Yee Chan,2019-01-24
