Scriptural and Statistical Views in Favor of Slavery Thornton Stringfellow, 1856 Bulletin of the Virginia State Library, 1915 Southern Literary Messenger, 1856 The Ideology of Slavery Drew Gilpin Faust, 1981-09-01 In one volume these essentially unabridged selections from the works of the proslavery apologists are now conveniently accessible to scholars and students of the antebellum South The Ideology of Slavery includes excerpts by Thomas R Dew founder of a new phase of proslavery militancy William Harper and James Henry Hammond representatives of the proslavery mainstream Thornton Stringfellow the most prominent biblical defender of the peculiar institution Henry Hughes and Josiah Nott who brought would be scientism to the argument and George Fitzhugh the most extreme of proslavery writers The works in this collection portray the development mature essence and ultimate fragmentation of the proslavery argument during the era of its greatest importance in the American South Drew Faust provides a short introduction to each selection giving information about the author and an account of the origin and publication of the document itself Faust's introduction to the anthology traces the early historical treatment of proslavery thought and examines the recent resurgence of interest in the ideology of the Old South as a crucial component of powerful relations within that society She notes the intensification of the proslavery argument between 1830 and 1860 when southern proslavery thought became more systematic and self conscious taking on the characteristics of a formal ideology with its resulting social movement From this intensification came the pragmatic tone and inductive mode that the editor sees as a characteristic of southern proslavery writings from the 1830s onward The selections introductory comments and bibliography of secondary works on the proslavery argument will be of value to readers interested in the history of slavery and of nineteenth century American thought The Quarterly Review of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1856 Source Book and Bibliographical Guide for American Church History Peter George Mode, 1921 A Bibliography of Virginia Earl Gregg Swem, Virginia State Library, 1916 Recreations of a Southern Barrister Alexander Hamilton Sands, 1859 Trübner's Bibliographical Guide to American Literature Nicolas Trübner, 1859 The Merchants' Magazine and Commercial Review, 1857 A Bibliography of Virginia ... Virginia State Library, 1916 Contents pt 1 Titles of books in the Virginia State Library which relate to Virginia and Virginians the titles of those books written by Virginians and of those printed in Virginia but not including published official documents pt 2 Titles of the printed official documents of the Commonwealth 1776 1916 pt 3 The Acts and Journals of the General Assembly of the Colony 1619 1776 pt 4 Three series of sessional documents of the House of Delegates January 7 April 4 1861 September 15 October 6 1862 and January 7 March 31 1863 pt 5 Titles of the printed documents of the Commonwealth 1916 1925

With an introduction, notes, three appendices and an index Nicolas Trübner,1859 Scriptural and Statistical Views in Favor of Slavery (Classic Reprint) Thornton Stringfellow,2015-07-13 Excerpt from Scriptural and Statistical Views in Favor of Slavery Brother Sands Circumstances exist among the inhabitants of these United States which make it proper that the Scriptures should be carefully examined by Christians in reference to the institution of Slavery which exists in several of the States with the approbation of those who profess unlimited subjection to Gods revealed will It is branded by one portion of people who take their rules of moral rectitude from the Scriptures as a great sin nay the greatest of sins that exist in the nation And they hold the obligation to exterminate it to be paramount to all others If slavery be thus sinful it behooves all Christians who are involved in the sin to repent in dust and ashes and wash their hands of it without consulting with flesh and blood Sin in the sight of God is something which God in his Word makes known to be wrong either by preceptive prohibition by principles of moral fitness or examples of inspired men contained in the sacred volume When these furnish no law to condemn human conduct there is no transgression Christians should produce a thus saith the Lord both for what they condemn as sinful and for what they approve as lawful in the sight of Heaven It is to be hoped that on a question of such vital importance as this to the peace and safety of our common country as well as to the welfare of the church we shall be seen cleaving to the Bible and taking all our decisions about this matter from its inspired pages With men from the North I have observed for many years a palpable ignorance of the divine will in reference to the institution of slavery I have seen but a few who made the Bible their study that had obtained a knowledge of what it did reveal on this subject Of late their denunciation of slavery as a sin is loud and long I propose therefore to examine the sacred volume briefly and if I am not greatly mistaken I shall be able to make it appear that the institution of slavery has received in the first place

1st The sanction of the Almighty in the Patriarchal age 2d That it was incorporated into the only National Constitution which ever emanated from God 3d That its legality was recognized and its relative duties regulated by Jesus Christ in his kingdom and 4th That it is full of mercy Before I proceed further it is necessary that the terms used to designate the thing be defined It is not a name but a thing that is denounced as sinful because it is supposed to be contrary to and prohibited by the Scriptures Our translators have used the term servant to designate a state in which persons were serving leaving us to gather the relation between the party served and the party rendering the service from other terms The term slave signifies with us a definite state condition or relation which state condition or relation is precisely that one which is denounced as sinful This state condition or relation is that in which one human being is held without his consent by another as property to be bought sold and transferred together with the increase as property forever About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com Trübner's bibliographical guide to American literature; being a classified list of books publ. in the United States of America during the last 40 years.
