Showtime Worship In The Age Of Show Business:

Showtime! Dan Chambers, 1997-09 Chambers provides a defense of our traditional worship format by contrasting it with the style and content of the new wave of contemporary worship assemblies dominated by drama special singing and lifting hands With amazing clarity with a grateful grasp of current problems in public worship with a fairness that is totally Christian Dan Chambers has produced a work of monumental importance speaking to worship needs of this day Jim Bill McInteer By focusing the spotlight on biblical worthy worship Chambers brings the curtain down on current calls for entertainment style showtime during our gathered celebration of the divine drama F LaGard Smith I do not know of any study that is more needed in the churches today than this study of worship by Dan Chambers The study is comprehensive balanced in touch with contemporary thought and thoroughly biblical It is my hope that it will be widely used as a text in Bible study classes as well as by individual students interested in meaningful worship The book is an engaging and cogent plea for a more biblical approach to worship Harvey Floyd Dan Chambers preaches for the Concord Road congregation in Brentwood Tennessee He has also served as an adjunct instructor in Bible at David Lipscomb University in Nashville He has done graduate work in theology at Grace Theological Seminary and has received advanced degrees in Bible from David Lipscomb University M A M A R and in Business Management from Indiana University Ft Wayne M B A Theology

Matters Gary Holloway, Randall J. Harris, Mark Cothran Black, Randy Harris, 1998 When you hear the word theology you may automatically think of something irrelevant and unpractical Yet here is a book that demonstrates the significance theology has to the life of the Believer In this collection of writings by a variety of gifted authors issues of faith and Christian Living are explored Topics such as God salvation the church and worship are dealt with in a highly readable interesting way

Shine Like Stars Sara Leighton, 2005-02 A thoughtful ladies Bible class study of Philippians Sara Leighton offers practical advice on living God's Word and being a light to our friends and neighbors Beyond El Barrio Gina M. Pérez, Frank Guridy, Adrian Burgos, 2010-10-27 Freightened with meaning el barrio is both place and metaphor for Latino populations in the United States Though it has symbolized both marginalization and robust and empowered communities the construct of el barrio has often reproduced static understandings of Latino life they fail to account for recent demographic shifts in urban centers such as New York Chicago Miami and Los Angeles and in areas outside of these historic communities Beyond El Barrio features new scholarship that critically interrogates how Latinos are portrayed in media public policy and popular culture as well as the material conditions in which different Latino groups build meaningful communities both within and across national affiliations Drawing from history media studies cultural studies and anthropology the contributors illustrate how despite the hypervisibility of Latinos and Latin American immigrants in recent political debates and popular culture the daily lives of America's new majority minority remain largely invisible and mischaracterized Taken together these essays provide analyses that not only defy stubborn stereotypes but also present novel narratives of Latino communities that do not fit within recognizable categories In this way this book helps us to move beyond el barrio beyond stereotype and stigmatizing tropes as well as nostalgic and uncritical portraits of complex and heterogeneous range of Latina o lives

country Why was the little screen so enthusiastically welcomed by Canadians Was television in its early years more innovative less commercial and more Canadian than current offerings In this study of what is often called the golden age of television Paul Rutherford has set out to dispel some cherished myths and to resurrect the memory of a noble experiment in the making of Canadian culture He focuses on three key aspects of the story The first is the development of the national service including the critical acclaim won by Radio Canada the struggles of the CBC's English service to provide mass entertainment that could compete with the Hollywood product and the effective challenge of private television to the whole dream of public broadcasting The second deals with the wealth of made in Canada programming available to please and inform viewers even commercials receive close attention Altogether Rutherford argues Canadian programming reflected as well as enhanced the prevailing values and assumptions of the mainstream The final focus is on McLuhan's Question What happens to society when a new medium of communications enters the picture Rutherford's findings cast doubt upon the common presumptions about the awesome power of television Television in Canada Rutherford concludes amounts to a failed revolution It never realized the ambitions of its masters or the fears of its critics Its course was shaped not only by the will of the government the power of commerce and the empire of Hollywood but also by the desires and habits of the viewers
