Side By Side The Autobiography Of Helen Joseph:

Side by Side Helen Joseph, 1986      Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29

Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time. General questions of the literary as e.g. the relation between literature and reality, truth and fiction, the dependency of author, narrator and figure, or issues of individual and cultural styles etc. can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre. Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms. Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles, autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance. By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs, diaries, self-portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre, this three-volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches, systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective. While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition, special emphasis is placed on the modes of self-representation in non-Western cultures and on inter- and transcultural perspectives of the genre. The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross-references. The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies, students as well as non-academic readers.

Manna Hélène Cixous, 2000-12-01. A prose poem on two married couples involved in the revolutionary struggle. One is Nelson and Willie Mandella of South Africa, the other Russian poet Osip Mandelstam and his wife Nadezhda. In drawing parallels, the author stresses the contribution of the wives.

Women in the South African Parliament Hannah Britton, 2010-10-01. Although the international press closely chronicled the dismantling of South Africa's apartheid policies, it paid little attention to the unique role women from a variety of political parties played in establishing the new government. Utilizing interviews, participant observation and archival research, Women in the South African Parliament tells an inspiring story of liberation, showing how these women achieved electoral success, learned to work with lifelong enemies and began to transform Parliament by creating more space for women's voices during a critical time in the life of their democracy. Arguing from her detailed analysis of the strategies and political tactics used by these South African women, both individually and collectively, Hannah Britton contends that contrary claims in earlier studies of the developing world mobilization by women prior to a transition to democracy can lead to gains after the transition, including improvements in constitutional mandates, party politics and representation. At the same time, Britton demonstrates that not even national leadership can ensure power for all women and that many who were elected to South Africa's first democratic parliament declined to run again, feeling they could have a greater impact working in their own communities.

Women and the Remaking of Politics in Southern Africa Gisela G. Geisler, 2004. This study looks at women's struggle in Southern Africa where the last ten years have seen the most pervasive success stories on the African continent. Tracing the history of women's involvement in anti-colonial struggles and against apartheid, the book analyses post-colonial outcomes and examines the strategies employed by women's movements to gain a foothold in politics      No One to Blame? George Bizos, 1998 The Author sought to uncover the state's role in eliminating its opponents during the apartheid era in South Africa

Writing as Resistance Paul Gready, 2003-01-01 Writing as Resistance charts the inner workings of apartheid through the encounters imprisonment exile and homecoming that crucially defined its violent reign and ultimate overthrow Author Paul Gready demonstrates the transformative nature of autobiographical narrative as resistance in the context of political struggle This multidisciplinary study addresses a range of important contemporary topics migration postcolonialism globalization nationalism human rights and political democratization among others While informed by the work of South African writers including Breytenbach Coetzee First Krog Modisane and Serote and adding to the literature on the apartheid era this book speaks to all cultures of violence With this important work Gready sheds new light on the relationship between violence and creativity      The Drama of South Africa Loren Kruger, 2005-11-01 The Drama of South Africa comprehensively chronicles the development of dramatic writing and performance from 1910 when the country came into official existence to the advent of post apartheid Eminent theatre historian Loren Kruger discusses well known figures as well as lesser known performers and directors who have enriched the theatre of South Africa She also highlights the contribution of women and other minorities concluding with a discussion of the post apartheid character of South Africa at the end of the twentieth century

Popular Politics and Resistance Movements in South Africa William Beinart, Marcelle C. Dawson, 2010-12-01 An examination of post apartheid politics This volume explores some of the key features of popular politics and resistance before and after 1994 It looks at continuities and changes in the forms of struggle and ideologies involved as well as the significance of post apartheid grassroots politics Is this a new form of politics or does it stand as a direct descendent of the insurrectionary impulses of the late apartheid era Posing questions about continuity and change before and after 1994 raises key issues concerning the nature of power and poverty in the country Contributors suggest that expressions of popular politics are deeply set within South African political culture and still have the capacity to influence political outcomes The introduction by William Beinart links the papers together places them in context of recent literature on popular politics and history from below and summarises their main findings supporting the argument that popular politics outside of the party system remain significant in South Africa and help influence national politics The roots of this collection lie in post graduate student research conducted at the University of Oxford in the early twenty first century      Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world Women Writing Africa Margaret J. Daymond, 2003 Essential this distinctive series presents 120 southern African texts that are rich evocative Library Journal The Forgotten People Saleem Badat, 2013-01-29 The apartheid state employed many weapons against its opponents imprisonment banning detention assassination and banishment In a practice reminiscent of Tsarist and Soviet Russia a large number of enemies of the state were banished to remote areas far from their homes communities and followers Here their existence became a slow torture of the soul a kind of social death This is the first study of an important but hitherto neglected group of opponents of apartheid set in a global historical and comparative perspective It looks at the reasons why people were banished their lives in banishment and the efforts of a remarkable group of activists led by Helen Joseph to assist them South Africa in World History Iris Berger, 2009-03-27 South Africa in World History is the first survey of South African history to range from prehistory to the present the first to fully integrate social history and women s history and the first to emphasize connections between the United States and South Africa Written by Iris Berger a recognized authority on South Africa and a past president of the African Studies Association this marvelous history ranges from the first Stone Age foragers and Iron Age farmers to the coming of the Dutch settlers and the introduction of slavery the British conquest in the early nineteenth century the discovery of gold and diamonds the rise of Afrikaner Nationalism the coming of apartheid the Soweto Uprising and the creation of a new society headed by Nelson Mandela Drawing on colorful biographical and autobiographical literature to provide a personal focus Berger also explores social and cultural history examining issues of race class gender religion and ethnicity and drawing on a rich tradition of literature both oral and written music and the arts The book also discusses the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the devastating HIV Aids epidemic in the country and continuing struggles against racism and sexism thus connecting the South African past with urgent contemporary issues Women in South African History Nomboniso Gasa, 2007 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete text of the printed volume Women and Resistance in South Africa Cherryl Walker, 1991 1956 Simon Hall, 2016-09-06 Vibrantly and perceptively told this is the story of one remarkable year a vivid history of exhilarating triumphs and shattering defeats around the world 1956 was one of the most remarkable years of the twentieth century All across the globe ordinary people spoke out filled the streets and city squares and took up arms in an attempt to win their freedom In this dramatic page turning history Simon Hall takes the long view of the year s events putting them in their post war context and looking toward their influence on the counterculture movements of the 1960s to tell the story of the year s epic global struggles from the point of view of the freedom fighters dissidents and countless ordinary people who worked to overturn oppressive and authoritarian systems in order to build a brave new world It was an epic contest 1956 is the first narrative history of the year as a whole and the first to frame its tumultuous events as part of an interconnected global story of revolution     Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms     State ,1987

Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson,L.W.
