Looking The Pale Horse In The Mouth:

The Rider on the White Horse Theodor Storm, 2006 The Rider on the White Horse Theodor Storm, 1917 The Rider on the White Horse begins as a ghost story A traveler finds himself caught in dangerously rough weather On an island just offshore he glimpses the specter of a rider on a white horse rising and plunging in the wind and rain Taking shelter at a local inn the traveler mentions the apparition and the local schoolmaster volunteers a story It is a tale of ambition of a young man Hauke Heien who is out not only to make a name for himself but to remake the world of love and family as Hauke and his wife try to come to terms with their late born child's mental retardation and of politics as the community fights back against Hauke's initiatives It is a story too about the crisis of faith of wanting and missing the presence of the divine and of the persistence of superstition It is an appealingly matter of fact picture of rural life a harrowing glimpse of spiritual isolation and a stark vision of the violence of the natural world Finally it is a story about the basis of civilization in the act of human sacrifice Anticipating Lord of the Flies and The Lottery Theodor Storm's novella limpidly translated by the American poet James Wright is not just the ghost story it first appears to be but an economical and gripping dramatization of some of the bloody questions that haunt the disenchanted modern world basis for more metaphors than animals Speaking of Animals is a dictionary of animal metaphors that are current in American English It is comprehensive historical and metaphor based Each entry refers to the other dictionaries that catalog that same metaphor and the dates of first appearance in writing are supplied where possible for both the metaphor and the name of the source The main text is organized alphabetically by metaphor rather than by animal or animal behavior all the metaphors are classified according to their animal source in a list at the end of the book An animal metaphor is a word phrase or sentence that expresses a resemblance or similarity between someone or something and a particular animal or animal class True metaphors are single words such as the noun tiger the verb hog and the adjective chicken Phrasal metaphors combine true metaphors with other words such as blind tiger hog the road and chicken colonel Other animal metaphors take the form of similes such as like rats leaving a sinking ship and prickly as a hedgehog Still others take the form of proverbs such as Don t count your chickens before they hatch and Let sleeping dogs lie The horse is the animal most frequently referred to in metaphors followed closely by the dog The Bible is the most prolific literary source of animal metaphors followed closely by Shakespeare Curiosities of natural History Frank Buckland,2022-01-20 Reprint of the original first published in 1866
