Nation Maker Richard J. Gwyn, 2012-08-21

1. NATIONAL BESTSELLER John A. Macdonald: Canada's first and most important prime minister is the man who made Confederation happen, who built this country over the next quarter century, and who shaped what it is today. From Confederation Day in 1867, where this volume picks up, Macdonald finessed a reluctant union of four provinces in central and eastern Canada into a strong nation despite indifference from Britain and annexationist sentiment in the United States. But it wasn't easy. Gwyn paints a superb portrait of Canada and its leaders through these formative years and also delves deep to show us Macdonald the man as he marries for the second time, deals with the birth of a disabled child, and the assassination of his close friend Darcy McGee, and wrestles with whether Riel should hang. Indelibly, Gwyn shows us Macdonald's love of this country and his ability to joust with forces who would have been just as happy to see the end of Canada before it had really begun creating a must-read for all Canadians.

The Great Canadian Sonnet David McFadden, 2001 This classic Coach House big little book, small enough for pocket or purse, pleasing to the hand and eye, and long beloved by connoisseurs of Canadian letters, is once again available to an entirely new generation of readers thanks to the CHB reprints program. Follow Canadian hero Rick Wayne through the words of poet David McFadden and the drawings of Greg Curnoe as he moves sideways to grapple with the Big Questions. Fine literature will triumph in the end.
