Privileged Grace Amal Islim,2012-08-30 My main message is if we fight our own demons learn to forgive and love ourselves do and attract the good then we can reach our inner peace where all other blessings stem from When we reach this point we do not have the need to fight or hurt one another thus tolerance compassion acceptance and hopefully earthly peace In my book Privileged Grace previously published as Walking with the Vain Cattle in 2009 I shared through the best truth I knew my deepest thoughts emotions pains challenges dreams gradual healing evolution insights and triumphs which led me to my light Of course each of us will have different quests and battles to reach happiness and peace Mine were mainly dealing with the conformity banality mendacity and evil of our world such as war corruption slander manipulation abuse etc and to top it my own ego This might explain the choice of the previous books title Simply this was the diary of my spiritual journey and I know that this odyssey is still at its beginning But as any other book movie or a piece of theatre it either brings you laughter and tears guidance awareness realizations smiles messages inspiration etc or it doesnt It is up to you to see it from any point of view you please or simply view its points and then you can still distort it if you wish Thank you for reading me and hope this book brings you insights and answers which might help you define and reach your inner light and peace God bless
