Jones, 2020 From a stage erected in front of the US Capitol on April 25 1993 Michael Callen surveyed the throng an estimated one million people stretched across the National Mall in the largest public demonstration of queer political solidarity in history What a sight he told the crowd his earnest Midwestern twang reverberating through loudspeakers You're a sight for sore eyes Being gay is the greatest gift I have ever been given and I don't care who knows about it He then launched into a gorgeous rendition of Love Don't Need a Reason the AIDS anthem he composed with Marsha Malamet and the late Peter Allen As Callen finished singing people stood cheering and flashing the familiar American Sign Language symbol for I Love You For they knew the song's sentiment rang true for Callen who had recently announced his retirement from music and activism after a living for more than a decade with what was then called full-blown AIDS After the March on Washington Callen returned to his recently adopted West Coast home Los Angeles In the ensuing months his health rapidly declined and on 27 December 1993 Callen died of AIDS-related pulmonary Kaposi's sarcoma Love Don't Need a Reason focuses on Callen's most important and lasting legacy his music A witness to the overlooked last years of Gay Liberation and a major figure in the early years of the AIDS crisis Michael Callen chronicled
