The Noir Atlantic Pim Higginson, 2011 The Noir Atlantic follows the influence of African American author Chester Himes on Francophone African crime fiction In 1953 Himes emigrated to Paris he struggled there just as he had in the United States In 1957 his luck changed the famous French S rie noire brought out the first installment of his Harlem crime series La reine des pommes Suddenly he was a household name in France Later he would also have a significant influence on Francophone African writers for them Himes s blend of absurdist humor and violence offered an alternative to a high literary paradigm implanted during the colonial era Likewise his heterogeneous identity as American black and a writer of French bestsellers modeled an escape from the centripetal pull of the M tropole Starting with Abasse Ndione s depictions of Senegal s marijuana smoking subculture in La Vie en spirale 1982 and ending with Mongo Beti s 2001 Branle bas en noir et blanc set in Yaound Cameroon Francophone African crime fiction rejected French criteria of literary success it embraced a new postcolonial aesthetic that emphasized entertaining the reader while making a living The Noir Atlantic demonstrates why turning to what this study calls a frivolous literary mode represented a profound shift in perspective that anticipated more recent developments such as litt rature monde

Robert Lee,1980 Chester Himes James Sallis,2002-09-01 A fascinating biography of crime writer Chester Himes chronicles his colorful personal life from his youth as a petty criminal and prison experiences to his rise to success as an acclaimed poet critic and novelist and his extraordinary literary work Reprint Black Literature and Literary Theory Henry Louis Gates, Jr,2016-08-19 The imaginative literature of African and Afro American authors writing in Western languages has long been seen as standing outside the Western literary canon In fact however black literature not only has a complex formal relation to that canon but tends to revise and reflect Western rhetorical strategies even more than it echoes black vernacular literary forms This book first published in 1984 is divided into two sections thus clarifying the nature of black literary theory on the one hand and the features of black literary practice on the other Rather than merely applying contemporary Western theory to black literature these critics instead challenge and redefine the theory in order to make fresh stimulating comments not only on black criticism and literature but also on the general state of criticism today Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors,2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources
