Bain, 2017-10-24 Another magical tale from literary fraudster F W Bain supposedly translated from an ancient Sanscrit text but most probably written by the author The god Maheshwara and his consort P rwat are flying over the desert when they see a mirage which the Hindus call the thirst of the antelope and the skeleton of a camel Maheshwara tells the story of how those bones came to be there a sad story of love the human mirage During Bain s life argument raged about whether his stories were truly a translation from Sanskrit as he claimed them to be or whether Bain had written it himself While some early reviewers took his statements at face value many did not A contemporary review said in part Though palpably a pretence they are graceful fancies and might as well have appeared for what they really are instead of masquerading as translations No Hindu unless of this generation and under foreign influence ever conceived these stories Moreover they are of a strict propriety whereas original Hindu love stories would put Rabelais s ghost to the blush The book contains numerous footnotes referring to Sanskrit puns and wordplay that the author claimed to have been unable to render in English Excerpt from Wikipedia
