Spellbound Daniel Z. Lieberman,2022-08-23 Psychiatrist Daniel Z Lieberman MD reveals how to join forces with your unconscious to make better decisions find more meaning in everyday life and develop a richer more balanced way of living The conscious mind the part of your mental life you experience directly is responsible for only a tiny sliver of what science says is going on inside your brain Most of what you experience your moods and the things you like or dislike most of who you are comes from a much more mysterious part of your mind the unconscious And to really understand the influences of the unconscious says psychiatrist Daniel Z Lieberman coauthor of The Molecule of More we need to look to something often considered science s alter ego magic Drawing on the work of Swiss psychiatrist Carl Jung and with deep dives into what we can learn from ancient mystical traditions from alchemy to numerology to meditation Spellbound weaves together ancient magical traditions psychological research and the latest neuroscientific discoveries in order to bridge the gap between the conscious and unconscious mind Like it or not your unconscious is currently the source of most of your choices It s the source of your passions your energy and your gut instinct It can help you solve seemingly impossible problems with the gift of inspiration But it s not always working in your favor The unconscious is wild and untamed often leading us down self destructive paths that leave us baffled by our own decisions Spellbound helps you take a new path one where you learn how to recognize the influences of the unconscious and make it an ally in helping you become the person you were meant to be The human mind is perhaps the most mysterious thing in the universe Science is only beginning to uncover its secrets and some believe that we may never fully plumb its depths But the ancient traditions of magic traditions of understanding that have been built up over centuries give us another window into the hidden facets of our humanity After all as the visionary Arthur C Clarke once said Any sufficiently advanced technology is indistinguishable from magic Justification of Johann Gutenberg Blake Morrison,2010-05-14 Around 1400 in the city of Mainz a man was born whose heretical invention was to change history Some sixty years later he died robbed of his business his printing presses and so he thought his immortality In his dazzling first novel Morrison gives us Gutenberg s testament his justification dictated to one of the young scribes his invention will soon put out of work Thus Morrison conjures up the haunting figure of Gutenberg himself a man who gambled everything money honour friendship and a woman s love on the greatest invention of the last millennium Suffering and the Remedy of Art Harold Schweizer,1997-03-20 This book suggests that a listening to suffering may profit from a literary hearing and vice versa It is not only that literature tells of suffering but that suffering may tell us something about the nature of literature The author examines works and texts that range from medicine to literature philosophy to photography prose to poetry and from Antigone to W H Auden The book presents individual instances real and literary of physical and mental wounds and diseases of pain and death endured by a little girl in a burn ward a boy wounded in the war in Bosnia a nameless Vietnamese woman Job Antigone as well as a number of mostly lyrical elegists a survivor of the holocaust a wife bereft of her husband a daughter bereft of her father The autonomy of each chapter suggests that experiences of suffering are always incomparable One must in every instance begin again and enter the scene of suffering on its own terms the radically individual nature of suffering is prior or past to any theory or set of generalizations Staging Desire Kimberley Bell Marra,Robert A. Schanke,2023-06-20 Staging Desire gathers critical and biographical essays on notable stage personalities who made their mark before 1969 when the Stonewall riots accelerated the lesbian and gay rights movement in the United States How they staged their unconventional sexualities greatly influenced the course of their personal and professional lives and thus the course of American theater history The book builds on an earlier collection the well received Passing Performances which focused on actors directors producers and agents by examining playwrights lyricists critics and designers Shaping theatrical representations from offstage these practitioners exploited the special opportunities theater offered as a complex and many layered medium for expression of transgressive desire Essays cover the careers of major figures Clyde Fitch Rachel Crothers Mercedes de Acosta Djuna Barnes Cole Porter Lorenz Hart George Kelly William Inge James Acorn Oaks Adam Vagabond Badeau Eric Bentley Loie Fuller Robert Edmond Jones and Jean Rosenthal Grounded in research into the history of sexuality the book engages central problems of terminology and evidence in analyzing sexual practices of the past and the modes of articulation of sexuality in theater conditioned by American culture s peculiar anxieties about both Kim Marra is Associate Professor of Theatre Arts University of Iowa Robert A Schanke is Professor of Theatre Central College Iowa They edited Passing Performances Queer Readings of Leading Players in American Theater History a previous volume in this series
