

The End Of The World

Quite unexpectedly, as Vasserot
The armless ambidextrian was lighting
A match between his great and second toe,
And Ralph the lion was engaged in biting
The neck of Madame Sossman while the drum
Pointed, and Teeny was about to cough
In waltz-time swinging Jocko by the thumb
Quite unexpectedly to top blew off:

And there, there overhead, there, there hung over
Those thousands of white faces, those dazed eyes,
There in the starless dark, the poise, the hover,
There with vast wings across the cancelled skies,
There in the sudden blackness the black pall
Of nothing, nothing, nothing -- nothing at all.

Love, from the Ends of the Earth Enoch Dillon, 1990-01-01 Love Poems To A Poet: 111 Poems Of Eternal Love, Passion and Desire Leila Ziari ,2020-02-14 Leila Ziari s first collection of poetry invites readers into a world of transformative love Dedicated to and inspired by Bob Dylan these one hundred and eleven poems reveal the bliss pain expansion longing and ecstasy of eternal love Earthly and ethereal timely and timeless Just as Ziari chronicles her own metamorphosis she invites the reader to be inspired uplifted healed and renewed Through her bold confession of passionate devotion Ziari dissects the very essence of love and the whirlwind of emotions therein It is her vulnerability that allow for such immersion reminding readers that those we love are part of our spirits and have been embedded in our souls since the beginning of time While she hints at deep scars this poet never wallows Her transcendent poetry reaches beyond Ziari shows us what we know but so often forget the evolutionary and revolutionary power of love From the Ends of the Earth Abraham J. Poems of Love and Home William Wendell Riley, 1906 Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present Margaret Greaves, 2023-05-23 Poetry and astronomy often travel together in the political sphere from Milton s meeting with Galileo under house arrest to NASA s practice of launching poems into space Anchored in the post war period but drawing on a long history of poetry and science Lyric Poetry and Space Exploration from Einstein to the Present charts the surprising connection between poetry and extra terrestrial space In an era defined by the vast scales of globalization environmental disaster and space travel poets bring the small scales of lyric intimacy to bear on cosmic immensity While outer space might seem the domain of more popular genres lyric poetry has ancient and enduring associations with cosmic inquiry that have made it central to post war space culture As the Cold War played out in space American institutions and media from NASA to Star Trek enlisted poetry to present space exploration as a peaceful mission on behalf of humankind Meanwhile poets from across the globe have turned to the cosmos to contest American imperialism challenging conventional ideas about lyric poetry in the process Poets including Elizabeth Bishop Adrienne Rich Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott Agha Shahid Ali and Tracy K Smith invoke the extra terrestrial to interrogate national histories alongside their craft Dazzled by the aesthetics of astronomy but wary of its imperial uses poets employ astronomical figures and methods to imagine how we might care for both ourselves and others on a shared planet An Earth Poem, and Other Poems Gerda Dalliba, 1908

This Earth, That Sky Manuel Bandeira,2024-06-28 This is a generous long overdue presentation of the major Brazilian poet Manuel Bandeira 1886 1968 to the English speaking reader Well over a hundred poems appear here in both Portuguese and English together with a critical overview that introduces the poet and Brazilian poetry to the nonspecialist and contributes significantly to the existing body of Bandeira scholarship Bandeira s poetry not only stands among the most important in twentieth century Brazil but also embodies the experience of transition from one literary movement to another The poems span a half century of writing from the publication of Bandeira s first book in 1917 to the definitive edition of his collected work in 1966 Because critics agree that the poet s most influential creative efforts began in 1930 with the publication of Libertinagem Libertinism the collection concentrates on the later period A smaller number of poems drawn from the three books published before this date provide a useful basis for comparison Candace Slater s fine versions of the poems are augmented by a translator s note that considers Bandeira s poetic language in terms of the particular challenges it offers the translator into English Her introduction offers a fresh and comprehensive look at the poet whose artistic transformation from nineteenth century modes of expression to experimental twentieth century Modernism paralleled the transformation of his country It focuses on the poet's continuing alternation between an acceptance of if not allegiance to the material world and a desire for something more This fundamental though often subtle opposition is reflected in the title This Earth That Sky This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1989

The Love Poems of John Donne John Donne, 1572-1633 John Donne's standing as one of the greatest poets in the English language is now thoroughly established and critics such as T S Eliot and F R Leavis have found in Donne's poetry qualities profoundly responsive to the modern age While Donne is famous for his religious poetry his love poems are among the most beautiful ever written and this collection brings them together for the first time Donne was a man who knew all the many faces of love physical passion jealousy rapture grief and parting and possessed the genius to distill his experiences into poetry The potency of his writing has lost none of its effect Donne's love poetry taps the reservoir of feelings and emotions common to all human beings Before Donne was ordained as a priest in 1615 he wrote sonnets such as The Dream and The Ecstasy elegies such as To His Mistress Going to Bed and Love's Progress and wedding songs St Valentine's Day and Epithalamion all of which glitter with an eroticism that truly marries body and soul Charles Fowkes author of a critically acclaimed biography of Rembrandt and several anthologies of short stories has gathered those poems in which Donne is most passionate and most lyrical The result is this lovely volume the perfect gift for every beloved a book of poems to press flowers in and to keep by the heart
