Love Marriage:

Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace

Furstenberg, Jr., 2013-03-07 In the past decade or so scholars in the United States have identified the emergence of a new distinct stage of life as adolescence has become protracted and most young people of recent generations take longer to achieve economic and psychological autonomy than they did a half century ago This new life stage in between adolescence and adulthood when young people are in a semiautonomous state has come to be known as early adulthood Main characteristics of this new life stage include a later entry into the work force a longer period of time living in the natal home and a delayed age at marriage and childbearing These trends not only have profound implications for young adults well being and intergenerational relationships but also challenge social institutions such as family schools labor markets and many youth serving institutions relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility The God Within
