Schwedt,2000 Finally a summary section provides a brief synopsis of at least one title representative of the author's style and several of the writers have provided personal annotations of their works BOOK JACKET When Comes the Spring (Canadian West Book #2) Janette Oke, 2005-02-01 Elizabeth the cultured young schoolteacher from the East has braved the western frontier and spent a year teaching in a one room schoolhouse How she and Wynn are planning their wedding and their new life together at his outpost in the far north While Wynn is accustomed to life in the north Elizabeth is not Can their love for each other sustain them through a harsh winter loneliness and rigors of life without any of the conveniences they're used to Book 2 of the bestselling Canadian West series The Damascus Way (Acts of Faith Book #3) Janette Oke, Davis Bunn, 2011-01-01 Julia has everything money can buy except for acceptance by either the Gentiles or the Jews Her Greek father already has a wife and family leaving Julia and her Hebrew mother second class citizens But when they are introduced to followers of the Way they become part of that community of believers Abigail's brother Jacob now a young man is attempting to discover his own place as a Christian He is concerned that being more serious about his faith means trading away the exhilaration of his current profession as a caravan guard Hired by Julia's father to protect the wealthy merchant's caravans on the secretive Frankincense Trail undercover transport of this highly valuable commodity Jacob also passes letters and messages between various communities of believers He is alarmed to find out that Julia hardly more than a girl is also a messenger Can their immediate mistrust be put aside to finally bring their hearts together The Beloved Land (Song of Acadia Book #5) Janette Oke, T. Davis Bunn, 2002-10-01 She Yearned to Find a Home for Her Heart The tragic Acadian saga recounted in The Meeting Place when the British drove the French from Nova Scotia has followed two families over a score of years to the birth pangs of a new nation The Song of Acadia has been one full of pathos but also of hope Faith in God and family eventually have brought the Henri Robichauds to Louisiana and finally to a life of tranquility among the bayous Back in Nova Scotia the Andrew Harrows have been beacons of light among the British and the French communities But the American Revolution has created turmoil on two continents dividing nations people and sometimes even families Anne in England and Nicole in the New World have little hope of seeing one another again in the foreseeable future Then a letter finds its way to both sisters with news that send them on a frantic and harrowing journey to The Beloved Land Where Hope Prevails (Return to the Canadian West Book #3) Janette Oke, Laurel Oke Logan, 2016-08-02 Inspiring Conclusion to a Popular Series with a TV tie in When Beth Thatcher returns to Coal Valley she has much to be excited about She anticipates Jarrick's proposal of marriage and perhaps a spring wedding The mine is expanding and there are more schoolchildren than ever But the town's rapid growth brings many challenges A second teacher is assigned and Beth finds herself going head to head with a very different philosophy of education one that dismisses religion and rejects God Fearful for the children who sit under the influence of Robert Harris Hughes Beth struggles to know how to respond At the same time Beth wonders if Jarrick is considering a position at her father's company simply for her sake Should she admit her feelings on the matter Or keep silent and allow Jarrick to make up his own mind

Roses for Mama (Book #3) Janette Oke, 2006-08-01 She's cared for her siblings as best she could but is it enough? Instead of the new life she and her family expected to forge out west, seventeen-year-old Angela is thrust into the role of caring for her three younger siblings after the death of their parents. With the help of her older brother and trust in God, Angela is determined to raise the children as her mother would have wanted. As the youngsters grow, the questions and challenges intensify. Angela feels trapped and overwhelmed. Surely no man will ever want a woman who comes with three children in tow. Is this the plan God has for her life? Will she ever find a way to balance her own dreams with the promises she made to her mama?
