Real Boys' Voices William S. Pollack, Todd Shuster, 2001-05-01 What real boys have to say A lot of people use words like psycho or wacko to refer to people who are feeling glum or think they might want to take their own life I think these sorts of slang terms create further isolation in a teen and that's not what you want to do to a teen who already feels alone Alexander 18 from a small town in the South A guy is supposed to be strong tall and fast and have the qualities of an ideal athlete At the same time he's supposed to be smart He's expected to be nearly perfect Chandler 14 from a suburb in the Northwest What I hate about this school is that I am being picked on in the halls and just about everywhere else Cody 14 from a suburb in New England In Real Boys Dr William Pollack explored the issues that most boys in our nation face today In this fascinating follow up bestseller Pollack goes right to the source boys ages 10 to 20 evoking the secret struggles and passions of America's adolescent males in their own words Their voices are searingly honest and eager to be heard revealing how society's outdated expectations force them to mask their feelings of isolation depression longing love and hope We hear from boys and young men in big cities and small towns including survivors of the Columbine High School massacre who share compelling extraordinarily candid stories about bullying drugs sports school parents sex love and much more Pollack also offers ways to start a dialog and illustrates through templates what to do in many situations This is an eye opening book for teenage boys and girls but with its insights and strategies for dealing with their issues especially invaluable for all the people in their lives

Deadly Games Eleanor Yukic, 2001-04-16 The body of Elizabeth Hanlon, controversial Dean of Girls at Kennedy High School, is discovered in the boiler room of the girls' gymnasium. Her murder casts a pall over the waning days of the school semester. The eight teachers in the girls' Physical Education department are the primary suspects. Each has had a serious run-in with Dean Hanlon due to a severe clash with her philosophical approach to education, and each admits to disliking the woman, her attitude, and her disciplinary methods. Teri Hunter, popular tennis instructor, has been extremely outspoken in condemning the dean's antiquated methods in dealing with the problems of high school students of the nineties. Her passionate concern for the rights of students frequently places her in a contentious position with the school administrators. When the murder weapon, a tennis racket, is found in her locker, she becomes the prime suspect. Marty Arnold, young dance teacher who discovered the body, is another suspect. She's been on the dean's shit list for opening the dance studio for special practices on week-ends and for refusing to search students' lockers for contraband. Marty was heard having a violent argument with Dean Hanlon the day prior to the murder. Teacher Pat Masterson was conducting a class in the swimming pool, right next to the boiler room where the crime took place. The swim teacher is high on the list of suspects as the dean was highly critical of Pat's living arrangement with her fiancée, and Pat had had numerous arguments with her. Adie Ames, gymnastics coach and rumored lesbian, and Erin Dempsey, her black partner, were constantly harassed by the dean, who left religious tracts in Adie's school mailbox and nasty messages on the couple's phone machine. The police discover that the two were involved in a furious fight in a Santa Rosa gay women's bar and are capable of violent actions. Teacher Susan Patrick claims not to have been on campus at the time of the murder. She will have to prove this to the satisfaction of the investigating officers for they have learned that she was in the dean's doghouse due to her lack of cooperation with many of the dean's pet projects and she's incensed the old timers on the staff for discovering and exposing the existence of a department slush fund supported by illegally charging students for services Barb Clark the other dance teacher who coordinates student productions between the music drama and dance departments is another suspect The dean accused her of questionable and inappropriate behavior for conducting private extracurricular sessions with the handsome male student lead in the school's current production of Carousel Thelma Hendricks middle aged and overweight member of the department is another faculty member with a grievance towards the dean She was unfairly accused of embezzling Athletic Club funds In addition the dean continually criticized her for the actions of her daughter Candy a school drop out who has run off with a local drug pusher Sharon Garrett the Chairman of the Department and the dean's best buddy appears to be the one teacher above suspicion They had similar philosophical approaches to the problems at Kennedy High School During the course of their investigation however police officers Jim Collins and Harry Leonard uncover a torrid love affair going on between Sharon and a young male English teacher certain to have been disapproved by the narrow minded dean Other possible suspects include a maintenance worker fired for exposing himself to girls on the tennis courts an irate father whose daughter was injured in a gymnastic accident a male student arrested on campus for selling pornographic photos of his girlfriend the leader of a gang whose girlfriend was benched by the dean and not permitted to play in a championship basketball game the local school drug supplier an outstan
